NOT THE ONLY ONE.

THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF FORT WAYNE PEOPLE SIMILARLY SITUATED.

Can there be any stronger proof offered than the evidence of Fort Wayne residents? After you have read the following quietly answer the question.

Mrs. John Falcones, of 71 West Williams street, says: "I gave Doan's Kidney Pills sold at Meyer & Co.'s drug store a good trial and I can honestly say that I believe them to be a most worthy remedy and one that can be depended upon in any case where it is possible for medicine to cure. Kidney complaint seems to run in our family and I suffered from it for a long time. Before I began to take Doan's Kidney Pills I had terrible pains across the small of my back, and it was so lame that I could hardly stoop or move about to attend to my household work. After I finished the second box of this valuable remedy all the symptoms of my former trouble passed away."

BRYAN FIRM.

proper thing for the convention to do is to reaffirm the silver plank of the Chicago platform. There are a great many good democrats in the east who will not give the ticket their full support if the silver plank is made too strong and there should be some consession to them if it will help them to win out in November. From all we hear, however, I think that there is little doubt that a straight plank will go into the platform regarding silver. Whatever Mr. Bryan wants will suit us, but we are willing that the matter should be administered mildly. We have not made up our minds as a delegation regarding the vice presidency, but any man who has the endorsement of New York and Indiana will do for us.

WISCONSIN.

Sentiment infavor of the nomination of David B. Hill for vice president expressed by National Committeeman Clancy was re-echoed by a number of members of the Wisconsin delegation who arrived today.

"But we have not decided whom to support for the nomination," said Former Governor George R Peck. "The delegation will caucus this afternoon and discuss the matter."

"Discuss it," chimed in another delegate; "we have discussed it and the platform too. Many of us favor David B. Hill. We don't want to take too radical a stand on the silver question. Issues are more important."

PENNSYLVANIA.

Considerable disappointment was manifest among the Pennsylvania delegates today over the announcement that Bryan will insist upon the adoption of a 16 to 1 plank in the platform.

James Kerr, secretary of the national congressional committee, and Former Congressman Mutchler, returned from their visit to Lincoln this morning. Their mission was fruitless. Mr. Kerr said he found Mr. Bryan firm for a specific declaration in the platform and for the nomination of a candidate for the vice presidency who shall be thoroughly in harmony with the head of the ticket and the platform.

NEW YORK.

The New York delegation does not meet until 3 o'clock, but, it is understood, will at that time name Senator Murphy for chairman of the delegation, Lewis Nixon for vice president of the convention and Norman E. Mack for national committeeman. A new name suggested for New York member of the committee on platform is Judge Van Wyck, but it is believed that Senator Hill will serve.

MICHIGAN.

The Michigan delegation arrived today and announced itself as favorable to Towne for vice president.

"We are not instructed for him," said Rush Culver, delegate-at-large, "but we have passed resolutions saying that we heartily approve of his candidacy. On the silver plank we are for reaffirmation, as we think that carries enough endorsement for the 16 to 1 plank of the Chicago platform."

HILL CALLS ON INDIANA.

Kansas City, July 3.—Mr. Hill went to the Indiana headquarters today and made a speech to the delegation. His remarks were general in terms, but advocated conservative action as a means of democratic success. He was loudly cheered by the delegates and as he passed through the crowd when returning to his room there were many shouts of "Hill," "Hill," interspersed with cheers.

WANT HARMONY.

manner in which his suggestions were treated by Mr. Bryan on his recent visit to Lincoln. This is a feature, however, which cuts both ways, as there is an element among the delegates who do not feel like offering anything in the way of olive branches. It is known that Hill and his friends have some hesitancy about pushing Danforth for the nomination, because they have doubts of success if there is a distinct declaration for 16 to 1. The fact that the New Yorkers seem willing to allow the convention to take its own course without making any determined effort to name a candidate has given the Towne men a great deal of encouragement and they are today more aggressive than ever. But from the quarters of the eastern men, particularly New York and the Sulzer element, comes a story of a different nature. The eastern delegation is absolutely quiescent on any of the direct issues in the platform or as to candidates. They assert that they are for anything the western silver delegates may decide upon. Hill's name, they say, will not be considered.

BELMONT NOT CONSIDERED.

Belmont, who has been mentioned, is not even considered by the silver element. Western and southern representatives assert that the fight for the vice presidential situation has narrowed down to two men, both personal friends of William J. Bryan, and both alleged to be absolutely acceptable. They are Towne, of Minnesota, and Sulzer, of New York. Of the two men they agree Towne has the better of the contest, because it is pointed out that he will represent a fusion of all the silver elements.

Mr. Sulzer was inclined to be reticent today when he was told of this situation. He admitted that he knew the east had practically decided to let the convention be dominated by the western men, and admitted that Mr. Towne was the leader in the race by saying:

"Mr. Towne is very acceptable to Mr. Bryan. If Mr. Towne is thought to be the better man by the leaders, I will withdraw for him. We understand each other perfectly, and Mr. Bryan understands us. Mr. Towne has the advantage of already being on two tickets, but I claim to offset that by being strong in the east and particularly in my own state and city."

New York state's headquarters, in absolute quiet this morning, gave practical confirmation of the story that the delegation had determined to let the west dominate and conduct the convention. There were very few of the New York delegates about during the morning, and those who were asserted very firmly:

"We don't care what they do."

The second Tammany hall delegation arrived about 4 o'clock this morning and they were too tired to care much about the situation. Mr. Croker, asked to give his views on the situation, said today:

"I don't know anything about it. We're for the ticket, and the platform, whatever they are," and one of his lieutenants, P. F. Trainor, added:

"We're letting Bryan's friends run it."

Elliott Danforth was not disposed to talk, merely remarking:

"I know that I am mentioned, but I am not putting forth any effort. I am inclined to believe that the real contest is between Mr. Sulzer and Mr. Towne."

The New York delegation is to meet this afternoon and one of the significant rumors of the morning is to the effect that Senator Patrick H. McCaren, of Brooklyn, is to be the selection for member of the committee on resolutions, so that Hill will not be compelled to put himself on record on the platform or to object to any of its promises. One thing is absolutely sure and that is that the delegation will refuse to give in any way expression to its viwes as to a vice presidential candidate. Even Mr. Sulzer admits this, although he says that he has the support of Richard Croker and Edward Murphy.

A circular on the street this morning is signed by a committee representing the Chicago platform democrats of New York, and urges the convention to refuse to seat Richard Croker, John F. Carroll, Mayor Van Wyck, Judge Van Wyck, Corporation Counsel John Whalen, Board of Aldermen President Guggenheimer, on the ground that they are shareholders in the "American Ice Trust, and no one knows in how many other trusts, and David B. Hill is the principal attorney for other trusts and the destroyer of the Ulster county Chicago platformr petion in 1897."

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, was among today's early arrivals. He immediately announced himself for Towne for vice president, but said that he did not consider it necessary to make specific declaration on the ratio when declaring for silver.

"With Bryan at the head of the ticket," he said, "we need no platform. His position is such that no man can question it."

WOULD NOT HAVE IT.

"I don't want it, I won't take it, I wouldn't have it," said Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, today, when asked if he was a candidate for the vice presidency.

"I'm not looking for anything," he continued.

"But some of the Illinois delegation are for you for vice president."

"Well," said the mayor, "they'd better get off and get off quick and get with the winner. Illinois wants a man from the east and a man from New York. I am for Elliott Danforth and for him strong, and I believe the support of the Illinois delegation will be given him. I think he is the strongest man the convention can name.'

A NEW FACTOR.

A new factor was introduced into the vice presidential situation later in the day by an effort to unite the Indiana and New York delegations on the question. There is a strong possibility that before evening the two delegations will have agreed upon a man whom they will unitedly press before the convention as a candidate. As many of the other states have already declared themselves as being willing to accept any man who has been proclaimed by the democracy of New York, as capable of carrying that state in the fall election, there is but small doubt that any man having the dual endorsement of Indiana and New York will be a formidable factor.

DANFORTH THE MAN.

It was reported that Danforth, of New York, had been named as the man whom the two states would agree on. This story, upon investigation, however, proved to be somewhat premature, as at 11 o'clock the two delegations had not agreed upon any one, and there was small prospect that they would do so for several hours.

"There has been no agreement between the two states that I know of," said Mr. Shively, of Indiana, "and I would not care to be quoted as saying that there will be a formal agreement of any sort."

"But will there not be an informal agreement that will carry the same weight?"

SHIVELY'S VIEW OF IT.

"That is a different thing," said Mr. Shively, with a smile. "And I would not be surprised to see some such step taken, but I am quite sure that nothing of importance has been done up to the present time. It will be several hours before the matter is in definite shape, however, and what that shape will be I am unable to predict. I will say, however, that from what I know at the present time, Mr. Danforth will not be agreed upon as the most available man. He may be, but the indications just now are that it will be somebody else."

"There has been no agreement reached between the two states regarding a vice presidential candidate," said Hugh Dougherty, delegate-at-large from Indiana. "Some steps have been taken in that direction, but they have not as yet produced any result. It is likely that they will have something to show within a short time, however. No man has been agreed upon as yet, but Mr. Danforth's name may have been considered. I will not say whether it has been or not, but no definite agreement has been reached regarding him."

MR. DOUGHERTY ON MR. TOWNE

When Mr. Towne's name was mentioned, Mr. Dougherty said:

"We all have the highest regard for Mr. Towne as a man, but I wish to say that I (and there are many others of the same opinion as myself) am not willing that under any circumstances shall Mr. Towne have the second place on the ticket. He is a most excellent man, but there are other excellent men who have been democrats all their lives, have given much time and work and made many sacrifices for the good of the democratic party, and I think that one of these men should be rewarded in preference to Mr. Towne, who has not been a member of the party all his political life. Personally, I am in favor of the nomination of Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia."

"Has his name been considered by the New York and Indiana delegations?"

DOUGHERTY DENIES ALLIANCE

"The matter is not far enough advanced at this time for me to say that any man has been really considered," was the most definite reply that Mr. Doughtery could be induced to make. Mr. Dougherty wished it distinctly understood that there was no hard and fast alliance between the states of Indiana and New Yor They were simply trying to get together on a vice presidential candidate who could run stronger in both states than any other man.

One of the most significant happenings of the day in the vice presidential situation occurred during the forenoon in the New York headquarters and when it became known the sentiment for the nomination of Eliot Danforth took a more pronounced turn. Mayor Maguire, of Syracuse, the New York state silver leader, and Treasurer Hughes, of the New York state democratic committee, who have been in Lincoln, arrived here this morning and went immediately to the New York state headquarters. There they found Mr. Danforth chatting with his friends Mr. Maguire called him aside and said:

DANFORTH EXPLAINS.

"Mr. Danforth, if you are a candidate for vice president, we are with you."

Mr. Danforth replied:

"I am not a candidate. All my desires, as you gentlemen know, are confined to my own state. I do not desire to go to Washington and if nominated and elected it would interfere with all my plans. I am much obliged, but my highest aspiration in politics is to serve my party in my state."

Mr. Maguire: "But if the people want you, you can't decline."

Mr. Danforth replied: "No, but I don't want it. You know what I want in New York."

Mr. Maguire: "Well, if the matter is brought up in the New York state delegation this afternoon we shall vote for you."

IS CLOSE TO BRYAN.

The significance of this interview is that as Mr. Maguire is close to Mr. Bryan and has just returned from several days' visit, he may voice the wish of Mr. Bryan, to have New York state represented on the ticket, and represented by Mr. Danforth.

Asked point-blank by an Associated Press reporter if that were the case, Mr. Maguire said cautiously:

"Mr. Bryan feels friendly towards Mr. Danforth. He would not, I am sure, object to his being on the ticket."

The office in New York state to which Mr. Danforth admits being partial is that of governor, and it is because it is believed he would be a strong candidate there and so help the national ticket that some of the leaders do not favor forcing the vice presidential nomination upon him.

DANFORTH OR TOWNE.

As the day wore on the impression spread among the delegates that the convention will either nominate Danforth or Towne, and that element which felt that a democrat should be named was more strongly in favor of Danforth. The men who have been in favor of a modified platform were among those who turned their attention toward a New York man and who saw in Mr Danforth the most available candidate. It is understood that the southern delegations were very pronounced against Towne and that some states had declared for Danforth.

The Towne men have started a canvass of delegates and are trying to make a poll of the different delegations to ascertain the strength of the Minnesota candidates.

DEATH'S RECORD OF THE DAY

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR WILLIAM H. BRADY.

Ludwig Kelpin and James S. Thompson Called From Earth — Other Mortuary Matters.

Funeral services for the late William H. Brady were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence in Lakeside, and a large concourse of friends were present to pay their tribute of respect to his memory. Rev. Samuel Wagenhals, of Trinity English Lutheran church, officiated. The Rurode Dry Goods company, with which store Mr. Brady was connected for so many years, was closed during the day, and the employes attended the services in a body. The pall-bearers were made up from among the oldest employes of the store, and included Messrs. C. F. F. Meyer, William Lange, U. Shoffman, William Hackius, Fred Straussberg and Christopher Kramer. The interment at Lindenwood was private.

KELPIN.

Ludwig Kelpin, 29 years of age, died at 5 o'clock this morning at his home on South Hanna street, after an illness of five weeks from stomach trouble. Mr. Kelpin was born in German, and leaves a wife and three children. Mr. Kelpin was formerly employed at the Bass foundry.

The funeral announcement will be made later.

FAHLSING.

William F. Fahlsing, for many years a resident of this city, died at 6:30 o'clock this morning at his home, 334 East Washington street, at the age of 62 years. Little more than a week ago Mr. Fahlsing suffered slight stroke of paralysis, and he declined slowly until his death this morning.

He was a native of Germany, but came to Fort Wayne when a young man and has resided here ever since that time. For nearly fifteen years he was a bailiff of the circuit court. His wife died but two months ago. Eight children survive—Mrs. Louise Kendall, Mrs. Frank Martin, the Misses Minnie, Anna and Clara Fahlsing and Messrs. Will, Charles and Otto Fahlsing, the three sons residing in Chicago.

The funeral services will be held from the residence on Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. Miller, of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

THOMPSON.

James Spicer Thompson, a life-long resident of Allen county, died at the home of his son, on Piqua avenue, Monday evening, at 6 o'clock, after a protracted illness from palsy. Mr. Thompson's age was 62 years, 3 years and 4 days. He was born at Hesse Cassel, and until a few years ago resided in that vicinity.

The funeral services will be held from the residence at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Kohrman.—Funeral services of Mrs. Mary A. Kohrman will be held on Wednesday morning at 8:30 from the residence, 197 West Superior street, and at 9 o'clock from St. Paul's Catholic church.

Fleming. — Funeral services of James W. Fleming will be held from the residence in Perry township Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. L. L. Henson will officiate and the interment will be at Lindenwood.

There is a vast difference between CERESOTA FLOUR and ordinary flour—not much difference in cost, but a great difference in kind. The only way to test flour is to bake it. See what kind of bread it will make and how many loaves to the barrel. A pound of CERESOTA bread is a better argument than a bushel of talk. 2-2t

THE PLACE TO GO.

The Seashore is the Ideal Spot for Outings and Vacation Trips.

It will cost only $14.50 for round trip from Fort Wayne to either of the ten famous resorts: Atlantic City, Cape May, Avalon, Anglesa, Holly Beach, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Wildwood, New Jersey; Rehoboth, Delaware, and Ocean City, Maryland. Tickets will be sold Thursday, August 9th, via Pennsylvania Lines, the all-rail route to the sea. For particulars apply to John E. Ross, Ticket Agent, Fort Wayne.

Senator Platt, of New York, is taking a rest from politics at Manhattan Beach and nursing his broken rib and incidentally wondering how the bruised slats of Mark Hanna are getting along.

William McKinley, member of Bricklayers and Stonemasons' Union No. 21, and president of the United States, has been expelled from the Buildings Trades' council in Chicago by a unanimous vote. The grievance against Mr. McKinley is that he is a candidate for a political office.

Those New York shop girls to whom Mrs. Emma A. Schley bequeathed $5,000 each merely because they were courteous to her while selling goods to her are living proof that politeness pays. The testator, whose estate amounted to $5,000,000, did not even know the first names of some of these lucky girls.

The law of modern life is progress. In obedience to it a state order has gone out that henceforth the mule is to be banished as the motive power of Ohio's canals in favor of the trolley wire. Little poetry has surrounded this animal during his career among men. At the same time, if it is true that originally the lightning's bolt shot straight and was knocked zigzag, as we now see it, through striking a primordial mule, it makes his having to submit to this modern application of the electric fluid all the more impressive.

LIGHT ON THE BOXERS.

Some light is shed upon the boxer uprising by translations from the Chinese book of Kang-Yu-Wei. These translations have been made by the North China Herald. The theme of the author is the danger that Chinamen will be driven out of China with nowhere to go, or be exterminated. From the translations a few sentences are selected:

"Russia has elejected the Hebrews, 160,000 having been driven forth. Twenty-four hours were allowed them to get beyond the Russian boundaries. They could sell neither their lands nor houses, and could take with them only a little ready money. * * * Moreover, when ejected from Russia, they had no native land to which to turn. Long ago Palestine had been parceled out among its powerful neighbors.

"Our race will be destroyed. See how Russia has treated Poland; The Russians banished all the able-bodied men and allowed only the old men to remain in the country. Therefore the Polish race has been exterminated. At present the women of India are married to foreigners. Everybody knows that the races of India are in danger of being exterminated. Today the white races predominate over the entire globe. Among the yellow races the Chinese only wield any political influence and rule their own country. If our country should be conquered and its government controlled by foreigners they would assuredly treat us as they have treated the Poles and the Hindus. We, our children, and our grandchildren, would be altogether exterminated."

There is more to the same purport. Japan, only, is excepted from the list of enemies. "China and Japan hold the same close relationship to each other as do the lips to the teeth," says the author. He refers to the size of China, larger than sixteen powers of Europe, with 400,000,000 people, yet "we are despised, insulted and murdered by other people." There is an appeal to the Chinese who live beyond the seas, "numbering at least 5,000,000," who "are also daily abused and insulted by those among whom they live," and the whole is concluded by a fierce denunciation of the dowager empress and the incompetent government at Pekin.

In Europe the opinion holds that Great Britain is not blameless in the matter of the famine in India. It is asserted that when there are crops in that unfortunate country three-fifths of it are taken by the tax gatherers, leaving but two-fifths for the farmers; that of this heavy taxation a very small proportion goes for the benefit of the country, the remainder to the officials; finally, that a famine fund raised some years ago of $100 000,000 has been diverted to other uses. These charges are serious in their way, but, true or false, Great Britain has not done its full duty in relieving the distress of its dependency, which might have been done effectively at vastly less cost than the prosecution of the war in South Africa. The subjugation of the Afrikanders has borne grievously on India, whose distress has excited much more pity and elicited more aid in America than in England.

SOME BIG FIGURES.

Wm. P. Cooper, general agent of the New York Life, calls attention to an interesting compilation of losses paid by life insurance companies as shown by the Insurance Press, of New York city.

The amount paid in death losses in Indiana was $3,480 405, and of this large sum there was paid in Fort Wayne $145,491, based on special returns made by the regular life insurance companies. To these figures must be added the year's disbursements by the fraternal and assessment societies, of which no accurate report is at hand, but it is fair to presume that the grand total of Fort Wayne receipts from death losses in 1899 will closely approximate $200,000.

A contrast between these payments and the amount paid by fire insurance companies in Fort Wayne during the past year is interesting. The official record of Chief of Fire Department Hilbrecht shows that the fire losses paid in 1899 were $160,455, which includes $132,750 on account of the great DeWald-Kaag conflagration. The fire losses paid in 1898 were but $82,474, and in 1897, $107,725 which includes the Morgan & Beach fire.

The life insurance payments present no such irregularity, but grow with the years and a marked difference in the conduct of the two branches of business is found in the fact that while few insured buildings burn, every insured man dies, and there is absolutely no salvage. In every instance the loss is total and is measured by the amount of life insurance carried.

WILL PROSECUTE

TUGBOAT CAPTAINS FOR REFUSING TO SAVE LIFE.

A SENSATION IN HOBOKEN

MAYOR HAGAN MAKES BRAVE ANNOUNCEMENT.

HUNTING FOR THE VICTIMS

BODIES OF VICTIMS OF FIRE ARE RECOVERED.

New York, July 3.—A sensation was created today by an announcement from Mayor Fagan, of Hoboken, that he will prosecute all tugboat captains against whom charges of refusing to save life during the North German Lloyd fire can be substantiated.

The mayor says he will apply at once for warrants charging two tugboat captains with murder and that he has evidence to prove that these men used boathooks to keep drowning men from climbing on their tugs because the unfortunates had no money. An effort is to be made also to have the licenses of offending captains revoked.

SEARCHING FOR BODIES.

New York, July 3.—The search for bodies of persons who perished in the fire at the North German Lloyd company's piers in Hoboken was resumed today. Up to the stoppage of work late last night, 67 bodies had been recovered. Four of these were still on the Saale, where they were found.

Wrecking tugs today continued their work on the Main and Bremen, removing cargo and debris and trying to reach the bodies believed to be in their holds. Many persons are known to have perished in these ships and the search for their remains will be kept up, but it is feared that any recovered will be unrecognizable.

The body of an unknown man, thought to be one of the victims of the fire, was found at the foot of Essex street, Jersey City, this morning. It was almost nude and was removed to an undertaking shop.

All the injured in the Jersey City hospitals were reported to be doing as well as could be expected today. Ernest Venner, the most seriously injured of these patients, is suffering from the inhalation of smoke.

The eighteen fire patients in Bellevue hospital New York, have almost fully recovered, and all of them, probably, will leave that institution some time today. They will be cared for by the North German Lloyd company.

Two bodies of fire victims remained at the New York morgue this morning. They are those of Charles Bremmer, an upholsterer of Union Hill, N. J., who lost his left while working on the Saale, and of August Weller, a machinist on the Saale, which were in the morgue, were removed last night to an undertaking shop for burial.

Up to 9.30 a. m., seven bodies had been taken from the river today. This includes the one found off Essex street, Jersey City and swelled the total of dead found to 74.

THE POLICE NEWS.

Yesterday afternoon Officer Greer observed two tramps in Nebraska who seemed to be under the influence of liquor. As he was following them some children who were playing in the neighborhood told him that they had seen them throw something away. A search was made and between the children and the officer they found a watch and chain, some rings and several other little trinkets. The officer pocketed them and then arrested the two men and locked them up. They gave their names as John Cameron and Frank Anken. Last evening Mr. Albert Hettler, living at 76 Charles street, reported that his house had been entered during the afternoon and some jewelry had been stolen therefrom. The stuff recovered by the officer was promptly identified. This morning Miss Hettler, sister to Albert Hettler, appeared at police court and identified the watch and chain as her property. Cameron was arraigned for burglary and larceny and was bound over to the circuit court and sent to jail. Anken, who it appears was not implicated in the robbery, was fined for drunkenness on a plea of guilty and sent to jail for seventeen days.

William Arndt told Acting Mayor Bullerman that it was the first time he was ever arrested and the first time he was ever drunk. His honor looked incredulous but suspended sentence.

Ed Ducey, timekeeper on the Superior street sewer, acknowledged that he had thrown a brick at Fred Bierbaum, a discharged employe, because he insisted on having his money forthwith, but says he can't throw well and missed him. Asked to account for Bierbaum's beautifully decorated eye and generally used up appearance, Mr. Ducey doubled up a tiny fist, showing up a diamond ring to good advantage, and said he did it with that. The judge thereupon assessed a fine of $12, which was paid. Bierbaum then pleaded guilty to being drunk and went to jail for eleven days.

Pat Murphy took the usual limit for being drunk and Charles Stadley forfeited his bail rather than miss the opportunity of getting full again on the Fourth.

GREET THE ROUGH RIDER

THOUSANDS IN OKLAHOMA CITY TODAY.

Governor Roosevelt the Center of Attraction to Natives and Visitors.

Oklahoma City, O. T., July 3.—Governor Theodore Roosevelt arose early today and after breakfast with General Metcalf, of the Twentieth Kansas, Paul Morton and a few other guests in Mr. Morton s private car, the governor began to put in his time exchanging greetings with his old comrades. Everybody in town, and it is estimated that besides the population of 15,000 there are 10,000 strangers within the city's gates, seemed anxious to meet Oklahoma City's distinguished guest and grasp his hand. Indians, cowboys, regular army men and rough riders were his constant attendants throughout the day.

The weather was extremely hot and dry.

The Rough Riders' reunion was fairly inaugurated today by a civic and military parade, in which Governor Roosevelt was given the place of honor. During its progress through the streets the Rough Riders and their famous commander were greeted with extraordinary demonstrations of enthusiasm from the throngs which lined the streets. The parade proceeded to the compress grounds, where the formal exercises of the day took place. The welcoming address in behalf of Oklahoma territory was given by Governor Cassius M. Barnes and in behalf of the city by Mayor Lee Van Winkle. The address of the day was by Governor Roosevelt.

IN THE COURTS.

Monday evening Judge Vesey granted a divorce to the defendant in the action of Edwin E. Vernon vs. Elizabeth Vernon. He also gave her the custody of their minor children.

About eight weeks ago a Nickel Plate train was stoned by some boys near Edgerton and several arrests followed, the culprits serving a jail sentence of forty-three days. One of the lads got away and was not apprehended until yesterday afternoon, when Sheriff Melching's deputy at Woodburn, Conrad Nagel, espied him there and placed him under arrest. He was brought to this city and lodged in jail last night and this morning, in Bullerman's court, he pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs. He will board it out at the Hotel de Melching.

The circuit and superior courts will not be in session again before Monday.

MARRIED THIS MORNING.

Vance E. Hammell and Miss Claudia R. Seaman were united in marriage this morning, the ceremony being performed at 10 o'clock at the residence of and by Rev. L. J. Motschmer, of Christ's English Lutheran church. Mr. Hammell was formerly employed at the electric light works, but is now in charge of the Standard Oil company's interests at North Baltimore, Ohio. His bride is a prominent young lady residing south of the city. They will take up their residence at North Baltimore, Ohio.

WINONA ASSEMBLY BEGINS

SIXTH ANNUAL SESSION IS INAUGURATED.

Enrollment For the Summer School is Large—Greatest Season is Already Promised.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Winona Lake, Ind., July 3.—The Winona Assembly and Summer School opened its sixth annual session last evening in the Auditorium with an address by Mrs. Maude Ballington Booth. Mrs. Booth and Miss Webb, her traveling companion, arrived in the afternoon and took rooms at the Winona hotel.

Mrs. Booth's subject last night was "Lights and Shadows of Prison Life." The lecture was intensely interesting, the audience large. Dr. Sol. C. Dickey, the season presiding elder, was unable to be present at the opening, he being east on business connected with the assembly.

The Summer School opened yesterday, under the general superintendency of Dr. W. P. Kane, president of Wabash college. The day was spent in organizing, the first session being held this morning. General recitation rooms are on the second floor of the Commercial block, but classes meet in other buildings and in the park. Nearly a hundred students enrolled during the day, and by tonight the number is expected to reach fully 300. The major portion of the students, however, will not arrive till after the Fourth. But one session will be held on the Fourth—in the morning.

The attendance is the largest ever known at the opening, and promises to far eclipse the general attendance of last season, which was second largest of any religious resort in the United States, coming up close to the Chautauqua. More than half the cottages are occupied and the hotels and boarding houses are fast filling up. All the cottages are engaged and judging from the demands almost twice as many could be let. About twenty-five new cottages have been built since last season.

While the crowds this season promise to be larger than ever before, the attractions are far greater. Besides Mrs. Booth, there are on the program E. P. Brown, editor of Ram's Horn; Dr. J. P. D. John, Will Cumback, John G. White, George L. McNutt, George R. Wendling, Herr Gustavus Cohen, Charles Montaville Flowers, Rev. Sam Jones, Rev. S. Parks Cadman, Leon Vincent and many others.

This afternoon John E. Wiley is scheduled for a lecture on "A Ramble Among Words," and this evening an entertainment will be given by the Wabash Glee club.

A most interesting program has been arranged for the Fourth. Ex-Governor Will Cumback will deliver the oration in the afternoon. In the morning there is general golf playing and in the afternoon a crack professional game, besides general field athletics, for which liberal prizes are offered. Excursions are provided on all roads.

WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty, of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by Dreier Bros., druggists.

The 2:25 Pace at mile track on the 4th will be a big card. The clip will be a merry one. 2t2 is a softening, soothing, refreshing liniment which has to be applied externally. It prevents all of the dangers and discomforts of pregnancy. Remember it is to be applied externally. Common sense will tell you that anything taken internally is injurious. It will not only weaken the mother, but will endanger the other little life which is to come. If you will think the matter out fairly, you will see that anything which gives the muscles elasticity and strength is bound to do away with pain and to make labor short and painless. This is what Mother's Friend will do. Hundreds of women have testified to its great value.

DEATH IN FLAMES

TWELVE PERISH IN HOBOKEN FIRETRAP.

A TENEMENT HOUSE HORROR

AN EARLY MORNING BLAZE BREAKS OUT.

KILLED IN WRECK ON RAIL

TWO DEAD AND THIRTY-THREE INJURED.

New ork, July 3.—Fire in a crowded tenement at Nos. 141 and 143 Adams street, in Hoboken, N. J., early this morning, caused the loss of twelve lives. Up to noon four of the bodies had not been identified.

Three of the bodies were of men and one that of a girl about 16 years old.

THE DEAD.

The identified dead are as follows:

Joseph Nicolaus, aged 28, musician.

August Bachman, aged 24, musician.

August Biendel, aged 25, musician.

Etta Winkler, 12 years old.

Edith Winkler, 5 years old.

Charles Winkler, 11 years old.

Frederick Winkler, 9 years old.

William Winkler, 5 years old.

Out of nine members of the Winkler family but four were saved, Mr. and Mrs. Winkler and their two children, John, aged 12 years, and Martha, 14 months.

Mrs. Winkler was badly burned while clinging to her infant. Her husband had to drag her and the infant through a window to save their lives.

The building was a frame structure, three stories high, and several families lived on each floor. When the flames started they burned rapidly and the firemen could do little either to extinguish the fire or to save life.

A DISASTROUS WRECK.

Butte, Mont., July 3.—A very disastrous wreck occurred late last night on the Montana Central railroad, a branch of the Great Northern, at Trask siding, twelve miles from here, by which two persons were killed and thirty-three injured.

The dead:

John L. Kelly, 8 years old, Salt Lake.

John Luceski, Great Falls, Mont.

The train left Butte at 8:50 last night and was on its way to Helena. It had made the climb up the Continental divide in safety and was rushing along at top speed on comparatively level ground, when the rails spread, ditching the baggage car, smoker, day coach and sleeper.

The engine and one baggage car remained on the track. The cars were thrown over on their sides and the passengers who were not injured, or slightly so, climbed out through the windows. All the lights were extinguished and from different parts of the wreck came calls for help and groans and cries of the injured.

Conductor Zick, who was injured, made his way back to Woodville, five miles, and telegraphed to Butte for help.

A special train with doctors and nurses was dispatched from this city and brought in the injured, who were taken to the different hospitals.

SOMETHING OF A HITCH.

St. Louis, Mo., July 3.—There was great rejoicing throughout the city today when it was announced that the St. Louis Transit company and the strikers' grievance committee had come to an agreement and that the strike that had been on for just eight weeks had been declared off. There seems to be a hitch in the matter, however. It developed today that many of the strikers are not pleased with the agreement signed by the grievance committee. They assert that the committee had no final authority to call off the strike. They did have authority, the men declare, to come to an agreement as to the ending of the strike along the lines proposed by President Gompers, of the Federation of Labor. The committee's authority extended that far and no further, they say. A meeting was called for 3 o'clock this afternoon, when the strikers will consider the agreement signed last night by President Whittaker, for the Transit company, and Chairman Edwards, for the grievance committee.

A GIFT TO FRANCE.

THE WASHINGTON STATUE IS PRESENTED.

THE CEREMONY WAS NOTABLE

ADDRESS TO THE FRENCH BY AMBASSADOR PORTER.

CONSUL GOWDY HAS SPEECH

STATUE ACCEPTED BY MINISTER DELCASSE.

Paris, July 3.—The ceremonies connected with the unveiling of the equestrian statue of Washington, the gift of an association of American women for the presentation of a statue of Washington to France, passed off today according to program and under favorable circumstances. Sousa's band was in attendance. The United States ambassador, Gen. Horace Porter, presided and delivered an address.

GENERAL PORTER'S ADDRESS.

It was as follows:

"First let me extend a cordial greeting and an earnest welcome to all who have gathered here to participate in the impressive ceremonies which are to follow. The occasion is fraught with peculiar interest. We come together today to dedicate a statue of Washington in the home of Lafayette. The patriotic ladies of America in presenting this gift to our sister republic could not perpetuate in enduring bronze a more exalted character. His name is the synonymn of unselfish patriotism, sublime heroism, unswerving virtue. When entrusted with the task of defending the liberties of his country, his towering genius brought order out of chaos, turned weaklings into giants and snatched victory from defeat. His modesty was equal to his courage. He never underated himself in a battle; he never overrated himself in a report. He reached the highest pinnacle of human greatness and covered the earth with his renown. His name will stand immortal when epitaphs have vanished utterly and monuments have crumbled into dust. His ashes were laid to rest in the bosom of the soil his efforts saved, but his true sepulchre is the hearts of his countrymen."

Consul General Gowdy made the presentation, and the French minister of foreign affairs, M. Delcasse, accepted in behalf of France.

M. DELCASSE SPEAKS.

M. Delcasse, in accepting the statue, said:

"The thought of offering France a statue of the hero who was the incarnation of the virtue of his race could not but go to the heart of this country. But it touched it more particularly when coming from the American women, who unite so perfectly valor with grace. I beg the women of the United States to accept, with my respectful homage, the profound thanks of the French nation. He whose noble image has just been unveiled may perhaps be cited as an example for the world, but, especially, to the citizens of a democracy. I doubt if another could be found in history who could reunite in the same degree the qualities demanded for the guidance of a free people."

Colonel Charles Chaille Long delivered an oration.

The equestrian statue of Washington is in bronze and is about fifteen feet in height to the top of the head of Washington, and from twenty-two to twenty-three feet to the point of the uplifted sword. Washington is represented in full military costume, taking command of the American army at Cambridge, July 3, 1776, and drawing his sword to the service of his country.

The pedestal was designed by Charles F. McKim, of McKim, Mace & White, and it is of Milford granite and Knoxville marble and is about fourteen feet in height and classic in treatment. The statue was cast in bronze in New York by the Henry Bonnard Bronze Co., and the pedestal was executed in the United States. The architect is an American and the two sculptors, Mr. Daniel C. French, who modelled the figure of Washington, and Mr. Edward C. Potter, who made the horse, are both Americans. The whole monument, therefore, is essentially American.

The following portion of the address was delivered in French:

"I am deeply sensible of the honor which has been assigned me of welcoming upon this occasion the high officials of France, the distinguished representatives of foreign powers and the citizens, both French and American, who honor this ceremony by their presence.

"Fifteen years ago a large number of the people of France, animated by their friendship for America, sent there the imposing statue executed by Bartholdi, which is at present the most conspicuous monument in the harbor of New York. "Liberty Enlightening the World." Today the ladies of America—we always find a woman whenever a noble task is to be accomplished—present to the former ally of the United States a statue of him who was the highest personification of liberty, the immortal Washington. During the eight long years of sanguinary conflict, carried on at the cost of countless sacrifices, to assure our national independence, Washington was at once the sword and shield of the country and the disinterested champion of the sacred right of self-government. Throughout his entire career he was content to leave the efforts to man, the results to God. When he could not control, he endured. Slow in deliberation, firm in decision, clear in judgment and vigorous in action, never allowing himself to be unduly elated by victory or depressed by defeat, he could convince when others could not advise; he could lead where others could only follow.

"He emerged from the heroic struggle in which he had shown the prudence of a Fabius, the skill of a Hannibal, the courage of a Ney, crowned with the affection of his fellow countrymen and the admiration of the entire world. From the bitter seeds of war he reaped a harvest of enduring peace. He did his duty and trusted to history for his need of praise. History has not failed to render to him the tribute of its homage. The founder of the American republic was always the faithful friend of France. His heart was deeply touched by the sympathy she evinced for the colonies which had arisen against an unendurable oppression and his sense of gratitude to the generous nation which came to their aid at the most critical moment of the struggle for existence was never weakened. His body lies upon the banks of the Potomac; it is fitting that his statue should stand upon the banks of the Seine. This monument is an offering of peace and good will. It is to be inaugurated within the shadow of the three resplendent colors which are those of the national banners of the two great republics. These flags, which blend so harmnious upon this occasion, are the symbol of the traditional friendship by which the two countries are united. May they never fail to recall the early alliance cemented upon the field of battle by the blood shed in common for the same cause."

HABERKORN-HALEY MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Filed Articles of Incorporation Today—New Fort Wayne Industry of Much Promise.

The Haberkorn-Haley Manufacturing company is the title of a new Fort Wayne institution that promises to be a notable addition to the manufacturing interests of the city, and articles of incorporation were filed this morning by Attorney Joseph E. Haley, the legal representative of the company.

Its capital stock is $50,000, divided into shares of $25 each, and the incorporators, who also constitute the board of directors for the first year are Messrs. Theodore H. Haberkorn, Joseph A. Haley, George H. Loesch, W. D. Henderson, Ernest W. Cook and Fred D. Hoham. The purpose of the new company is the manufacture and sale of steam engines and mechanical appliances, and especially the manufacture and sale of the Haberkorn-Haley patent valve mechanism for steam engines.

The Sentinel has heretofore printed a description of this valve mechanism, which is so distinct from all other appliances for its purpose as to practically constitute an entirely new engine. It has been thoroughly tested and has been in successful operation for some time in this city. The mechanism is adaptible to stationary and locomotive engines, to automobiles, steam vessels and every other purpose where steam is used as a motive power. Stock in the new company is now on sale and the gentlemen interested in the new company expect to at once proceed with arrangements for establishing a factory in Fort Wayne. There is every indication that the invention will prove a winner, and the inventors, who are practical mechanics of the highest type, are confident they have founded a manufacturing institution that will prove an important industrial acquisition to the city. It is expected the manufacture of the valve mechanism will begin within the next ninety days and the company is now casting about for a location.

FATALITY ON MT. WASHINGTON

Faybans, N. H., July 3.—The first fatality on Mount Washington in ten years took place as the result of the frightful storm last Saturday, when W. B. Curtis, sixty-three years of age, and Oscar Ormsbee, about thirty years, of New York, and both expert athletes, lost their lives on the Crawfish Height. Their bodies were found today by the members of the Appalachian Mountain club, now at the summit for their annual field meeting. Curtis was formerly one of the best known athletes in America, acting as referee at nearly all inter-collegiate sports and amateur athletics for many years and was one of the founders of the New York Athletic club. He was an expert mountain climber. Ormsbee, a member of the Crescent Athletic association, of Brooklyn, was an expert athlete.

LADIES WERE INJURED.

Kendallville Sun: "While returning home from a trip north last evening, Mr. and Mrs. Will Fisher, of this city, and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Trier, of Fort Wayne, met with an accident which might have proved very serious. While descending a hill near the Waterhouse place the tongue of their surrey fell to the ground, allowing the conveyance to run against the horses, which caused them to jump and kick, which soon demoralized the buggy. The ladies were compelled to jump from the conveyance and in doing so were badly injured. The injuries received by Mrs. Fisher have kept her bedfast today. The gentlemen escaped with a few slight bruises."

Without any elaborate preliminary arrangements Fort Wayne yesterday afternoon quietly and unostentatiously dropped back into second place. This was done with the connivance of the Old Soldiers, assisted materially by a number of errors by Fort Wayne which appear on the official score and several which do not appear there. All in all there were thirty-six innings played, of which each of the clubs played nine and the mild-mannered gentleman who modestly introduces himself as "Professor Johnstone" played the other eighteen. Mr. Johnstone was a very busy man yesterday afternoon. He commenced business by roasting the grand stand, and then paid particular attention to the reporters' box. Between times he blundered and floundered around the field doing some of the strangest things in the way of decisions that can be imagined. He had the playing rules pulled on him several times, but that cut no ice with him; he claimed that the rules were printed only for those umpires who knew little about the game, while he knew it all. He was allowed to proceed inasmuch as he was doing the best he could, one team getting as much the worst of it as the other and the crowd good-naturedly excused his ignorance and smiled at his antics and running off at the mouth. But "He'll never come back."

The other feature of the game was the pitching of Robbins, a local amateur, pitcher for the Shamrocks. He pitched nine innings and allowed ten hits. If he had had support when it was needed the score would have looked different. Some people are uncharitable enough to say that they believe Robbins was deliberately thrown down by the local team, but the Sentinel does not believe that.

Neither side scored until the fourth inning, when the Soldiers scored on an error by Krueger, a two-base hit and a muffed fly by Letcher. In the sixth a three-base hit and a single scored another man. The boat went down in the seventh when one hit and errors by Babb, Brashear and Miller let in three runs. In the ninth two more were added to the column. For Fort Wayne it was a case of lost chord until the seventh, when Captain Miller scored on errors by Wheeler and Gochnauer and a passed ball. In the ninth there was a little more excitement when the locals began dropping onto Moore's curves. It was too late, however, although three hits netted two runs, but the game was over when Harper, batting for Robbins, broke three large holes in the circumambient atmosphere. The score:

THE SHAMROCKS.

A large crowd should turn out to see Fort Wayne's fast semi-professionals at League park tomorrow afternoon. The Shamrocks have been going up against the best independent professional teams in this section of the country and have made a great record. The team has won nine out of fourteen games played. Among the teams defeated by the Shamrocks are: Richmond, Rochester (with Ream in the box), Indianapolis Reserves, Marion, Glasscock's Fort Wayne team, Concordia college (two games) The Shamrocks' opponents tomorrow will be the crack Muncie team. The Shamrocks had good offers from Battle Creek, Mich.; Plymouth, Auburn and other places for tomorrow, but at the request of many friends they will play here. The Shamrocks will play in Richmond July 8, in Chicago July 15 and in Marion July 22. At tomorrow's game ladies will be admitted free to the game and the grand stand will be free.

HANNA TO SEE M'KINLEY.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 3.—Senator Hanna left Cleveland early today for Canton, where he will spend the afternoon in conference with President McKinley concerning important political matters. Plans for the coming campaign will be discussed at length and the executive committee selected by Chairman Hanna will be submitted to the chief executive for his approval. Mr. Hanna has decided not to accept the pressing invitation to be present at the big Fourth of July celebration in Canton. He will return to Cleveland tonight and spend tomorrow at home.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, July 3.—The wheat market during the forenoon was firm and active. Liverpool was unexpectedly strong in the face of the 3¾c decline here yesterday, showing only a fractional loss. The Russian crop, it was reported in a cable message from Odessa, would be under the average. The northwest had more rain last night, but traders were disinclined to pay much attention to crop conditions, the shipping demand being considered the real key to the present wheat situation. August wheat opened 1c to 1⅜c over yesterday at 78¼c to 79¼c. Under profit-taking through commission houses August, having touched 79⅝c, following the opening, declined to 78½c. At this concession there was good support and a recovery to 79¼c followed. Local receipts were 148 cars, 7 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 96 cars, against 198 last week.

Northwest messages to the effect that the recent rains had done no good to the spring wheat was a help to the market later and August was bid up to 80¼@80⅜c. On profit-taking a reaction to 79⅛@79¼c followed, but the close was firm, August 1⅝c over yesterday at 79⅜@79½c.

Corn, aside from the strength derived from wheat, had some backbone of its own and enjoyed an active trade during the first half of the session. Liverpool was strong and higher, there was unfavorably hot weather in Kansas and Nebraska and country acceptances were light. There was a good outside demand and the same sort of encouragement from local bulls. Receipts were 1,161 cars. August opened ⅜c to ⅝@¾c over yesterday at 42½c to 42¾@42⅞c and sold off with wheat to 42¼c, but recovered to 42⅝@42¾c.

The close was strong, August 1@1⅛c higher at 43⅛@43¼c.

Oats were helped by the strength of wheat and corn and renewed assurances that hay and oats in the northwest had failed to an extent sufficient to startle the most optimistic horse which ever ate the aforementioned fodder. August opened ⅛c to ⅜c higher at 23c to 23⅛c, sold off to 22⅝c and then rallied to 23@23⅛c. Receipts were 463 cars.

Provisions were firm because hog receipts were under the estimate and the market at the yards 5c to 10c higher. The grain strength was also a help. September pork opened 20c over yesterday at $12.95 and sold to $13.00; September lard opened 10@15c higher at $6.95@7.00 and sold to $7.02½, and September ribs 10c up at $7.12½, advancing to $7.20.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—July, 78⅜c; Aug., 79⅜@79½c; Sept., 80⅛c.

Corn—July, 42¾c; Aug., 43⅛@43¼c; Sept., 43⅝@43⅞c.

Oats—July, 23c; Aug., 23⅜c; Sept., 23⅛c.

Pork—July, $12.70; Sept., $12.90.

Lard—July, $6.82½; Sept., $6.92½, Oct., $6.95; Nov., $6.92½.

Ribs—July, $7.07½; Sept., $7.10; Oct., $7.07½.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.90; Cash S. W., $1.80; Sept., $1.42; Oct., $1.36@1.36½.

LOCAL LINES.

Frank Barnes, of Chicago, will spend the Fourth in the city, the guest of relatives.

A little son of Deputy Treasurer Schulte is quite ill from the effects of a fall sustained several days ago.

Mrs. Walter Dederick, of Logansport, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, of West DeWald street.

The executive board of the Reformed Orphan's home held a business session on Monday afternoon and made preliminary arrangements for the celebration of the anniversary of the home, which will take place on August 9th. The celebration this year will be held at the home and will be on a much larger scale than heretofore. Excursions will be run from New Bremen and New Knoxville, O. Rev. Dr. Bachmann, of New Knoxville, was present at the meeting, but the secretary, B. E. Stern, was unable to be present, owing to illness in his family.

Reports from the bedside of Mrs. S. C. Moffat at Hope hospital this afternoon are of a more encouraging nature, and while Mrs. Moffat is still critically ill it is believed she is making satisfactory progress toward recovery. This intelligence will be deeply gratifying to the countless friends who have watched with tender solicitude her brave battle against conditions which seemed most depressing. Monday afternoon Mrs. Moffat submitted to a critical operation performed by Dr. W. H. Myers, Dr. M. F. Porter, Dr. L. P. Drayer and Dr. B. VonSweringen. She has rallied hopefully and seems to be slowly gaining strength.

Last evening the finance committee held a regular meeting and recommended the appropriation of $1,000 for the repair of Ida and Shawnee avenues bridges. The damage to these bridges was occasioned by the recent heavy floods in the south part of the city. The board of works asked for $1,500, but the amount was reduced to $1,000. It develops that the Ida avenue bridge is entirely destroyed and that it will require a new structure, which can not be built for less than $700. The law is that all bridges costing over $500 must be built by the county commissioners; the commissioners building the bridges and the city keeping them in repair. That being the case the $1,000 appropriation is considered ampy sufficient.

ONLY MANSLAUGHTER.

Floyd Rambaugh, charged with complicity in the murder of a policeman at Hicksville, O., was today convicted of manslaughter. He is the third one to be convicted, his two companions receiving life sentences. This is the case in which Detective Streifling of this city, is interested and in which he has gained considerable enviable and also some unenviable notoriety.

ONLY A SMALL BLAZE.

At 2:30 this afternoon the fire department made a run to the corner of Lafayette and Madison streets, where a small shed in the rear of the Gable property was in flames. The fire was quickly extinguished with but a nominal loss. Boys playing with fire crackers are supposed to be responsible for the blaze.

CRUSHED BENEATH TIMBERS

SEVEN MEN INJURED AT A BARN-RAISING.

Grant Graham Sustained a Fracture of the Skull and May Not Survive—Others Improving.

An accident in which seven men were injured, two of them seriously, occurred at the farm of John Smith just opposite the county asylum, in Wayne township late Monday afternoon. A large crowd of the neighbors of Mr. Smith had assembled to take part in a barn raising on his farm and as the big side frame was being raised into position one of the corner beams failed to settle into the mortice and the supports gave way. The frame, which was an unusually large one, crashed to the ground, striking and pinning to the earth Grant Graham and Louis Julliard, who were unable to get out of the way in time. The other five men were struck by the falling timbers, but were not caught under them as were Julliard and Graham. It was some time before the two injured men could be released from their perilous position and when taken out both were unconscious. Dr. Maurice Rosenthal was at once summoned from the city and after attending to the injured, ordered Julliard and Graham removed to the St. Joe hospital.

Grant Graham is the most seriously injured and it is feared that his injuries may prove fatal. A heavy beam struck him on the head cutting it badly and fracturing his skull. He has been unconscious since the accident and his life hangs in the balance.

Louis Julliard was pinioned by a heavy beam which lay across his chest. Two ribs on the left side and the left collar bone are broken, and there is a fracture of the jaw, on the left side.

The other injured men are: Joseph Raber, scalp wound and body bruised; Joseph Lichtenberger, two ribs broken; Christian Neireiter, three ribs broken; Jeremiah Mather, badly cut and bruised, and a man named Engle, slightly bruised.

LOCAL LINES.

Miss Bertha Heustis left this morning for Carthage, Mo.

The annual reports of the city government are being distributed.

The People's store will be closed all day tomorrow on account of the Fourth.

Miss Anna Burbeck, of Chicago, is the guest of Mrs. James Olive, of 154 West DeWald street.

A new case of scarlet fever was reported from 28 Pritchard street, making twenty cases in all in the city.

Miss Mae VanRensselaer, of Maumee, O., is in the city visiting the Misses Anna Matsch and Minnie Scovel.

George Scoggan who has been making his home with C. B. Beaver and family the past year, left today for Beverly, O.

Clerk McDonald, of the water works office is kept busy nowadays taking in cash for the payment of water rents, the time for paying which without penalty expires July 20. There are at present 7,550 service taps on record.

The members of the wheel club of the West Jefferson Street Church of Christ, and all others who desire to join them, will spend the Fourth in the grove west of the mile track on the Hicksville road. A basket dinner will be served.

A PETTY BURGLAR CAUGHT

ROBBED HOME OF ALBERT HETTLER, ON CHARLES STREET.

A Large Grist at Police Court This Morning—Police Detail Tomorrow—City Hall Notes.

Mrs. Kirby, of 76 East Williams street, reported to the police this morning that she had been "flimflammed" out of $4 yesterday afternoon by a smooth stranger. He worked the old racket asking her for change for a five and she having only $4 he took that and looked happy. She described him as being a very smooth individual about forty years of age, wearing a black beard, a brown suit and a cap.

POLICE DETAIL.

Superintendent Gorsline has appointed the following named policemen to be on duty at various parks and picnics tomorrow as follows:

Williams Park—Bloom and Goeglein.
Sweeney Park—Strodel and Heller.
Concordia College Grounds—Trebra and Reichart.
Miner's Grove, Bloomingdale—Thoma.
Driving Park—Laughlin, Phipps, Smith and Murphy.
Centlivre Park—Cheviron, Richards, Holland and White.

COURT NEWS.

In the superior court Dwight E. Plimpton has commenced suit against the Wabash Railroad company for $10,000 on contract. The suit is based upon grounds similar to a number of others which have recently been commenced against the company, all resulting from the great strike of '94. The complaint avers that the plaintiff was in the employ of the company as an engineer under a specific contract and that he never violated the terms of said contract and was never given a hearing on any charges of any sort which might have been preferred against him. Further he has been at all times ready to fill his part of said contract; that his wages under the contract averaged $125 per month, all of which money has been withheld from him since the 11th of July, 1894. For this and other reasons he claims damages in the sum of $10,000. L. M. Ninde & Sons are attorneys.

Frances M. Howe sues Charles Feichter in the superior court on foreclosure. Demand $1,500.

Recorder Gillette filed his first report today. During the two weeks he has been in office his fees have amounted to $265.90, of which $120 was turned into the county treasury.

This was bill day in the commissioners' court.

Justice Tancey today moved his office from the Bank block to the Swinney block.

In Huser's court Charles Lindsey has filed an affidavit against Albert King for provoke and Albert King has filed a similar affidavit against William Henze. The affidavits were the outcome of a quarrel in a Columbia street saloon, where compliments of an uncertain nature were passed.

Justice France today appointed Herman Felts custodian of the property of Richard C. Ross, adjudged insane by a jury. This appointment will stand only until the return to the bench of Judge O'Rourke, who will make the final appointment.

Charles M. Zickgraf and Grace B. Wilhelm were today married by 'Squire France. When the judge kissed the bride the windows in the new court house rattled perceptibly.

ARE PROVING POPULAR.

The increased attendance at Masonic Temple Sunday evening is evidence that Rev. Allen's popular Sunday evening services at the opera house will be most kindly received. A thirty-minutes singing service preceded the discourse Sunday evening, and the features of the song service were a splendid solo by Miss Smith, of Hiram college, and a duet by Miss Smith and Mr. Harshman. "A Knight in Old Clothes" was the pastor's topic, and in his talk Rev. Allen dealt entirely with incidents in the life of Christ when He was on earth. The text was taken from Matthew 16:13-24, and the theme, purely figurative, was based upon the ancient belief that when God should send an emissary He would be attired in gorgeous garb as an emblem of his divine authority. Yet Peter's answer, "Thou art the Christ," showed that he recognized in the unassuming Savior a true "knight in old clothes." And through the searching criticism of centuries Christ stands the same today, brighter, more certain, more definite than ever before.

JUDGE ADAIR WILL PITCH.

Columbia City Post: "James M. Harrison and Jeremiah Hartsock will pitch nine games of horseshoe against Judge Adair and Joseph Clark on the Fourth of July. The losing team is to pay for a supper at the Clugston house for themselves, their opponents and the families of both."

NIPPED A SNEAK THIEF.

Late this afternoon Officer Pappert arrested a man who gave his name as Charles Harington and his residence as Terre Haute, at Minskey's junk shop, on East Columbia street. Harrington had in his possession several hundred feet of inch rope which he had tried to dispose of at various places, as was afterwards learned. When arrested he said the rope belonged to him, but when pushed he said he found it in a vacant barn and did not know that it belonged to anybody. The rope is at the police station.

YOUNG AMERICA IS ALL READY

WILL CELEBRATE UNCLE SAM'S BIRTHDAY TOMORROW.

The Elder Generation, Too, Will Lend Some Assistance—Wide Choice of Events.

Young America in Fort Wayne will see that Uncle Sam's birthday is properly celebrated tomorrow, and a goodly proportion of the elder generation will join in the annual observance of the glorious Fourth. The small boy has been preparing for the event for several weeks. Tomorrow evening may find him bruised and burned, but he will be happy.

Though there has been no attempt at a concerted observance of the day in Fort Wayne, individual organizations have arranged programs that offer a wide range of choice in the matter of a celebration of the day. Only the assurance of good weather is yet needed to guarantee the complete success of the day. The weather man, with an incomprehensible disregard for his popularity, has marked up showers for northern Indiana tomorrow.

There will be the usual large number of picnics. A number of the Lutheran congregations will hold forth at Williams' grove, another event is at the Concordia college grounds, while still other similar gatherings are to be held in different parts of the city. At Centlivre park the Union and Liberty club has arranged a fine all-day program, and at League park in the afternoon the Shamrocks and Muncies will meet in an exhibition of the national game.

At the Driving park the Amateur Driving club will give a fine race program, and the card is a drawing one. Robison park, too, will doubtless draw many thousands of people. The program there includes theatrical performances at 12:30, 2:30 and 6:30 p. m.; wild west show at 2:15 and 4:15; band concert at 10 a. m., and fireworks at 8:30. The street railway company promises plenty of cars, both going and returning. All in all, there will be no lack of Fourth of July attractions in Fort Wayne tomorrow.

LOCAL LINES.

Miss Mada Hollman, of East Washington street, left today for Kansas City, where she will visit friends for three weeks.

Mrs. Mary Campion went to New York city today to make an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Salem Bashara, the Assyrian wholesale dealer in notions, is in Bremen, Ind., on a business trip.

The joint picnic to be given by the congregations of Zion's, Emanuel's and Emmaus Lutheran churches at Williams' grove tomorrow promises to be a most enjoyable event. The picnic will last all day. Refreshments will be served and the City band will furnish the music.

A number of the families of members of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ will hold a picnic at the grove opposite the Driving park tomorrow afternoon. There will be games and refreshments will be served. Among the families who will participate in the picnic are those of Rev. E. W. Allen, D. N. Doyle, Dr. Calvin, George Savier, Elwin Rich, M. McGee and others.

The board of public works yesterday afternoon passed on some small improvements and changed the location of a number of street lights. On Thursday night bids will be received for paving East Main street, from Calhoun to Barr; Clinton, from Main to Berry, Webster, from DeWald street to Woodland avenue, and Third street, from Calhoun to St. Mary's avenue. Building permits were issued to Hugh G. Keegan, for a two story frame residence on parts of lots 1 and 2, Bond's sub-division, for $2,500, and to I. M. Rosenthal, for a two story frame house on lot 247, Hanna's addition, for $1,800.

GENERAL AND PERSONAL NEWS OF THE RAILWAYS.

Superintendent Blizard, of the Michigan division of the Big Four, at Wabash, yesterday sent out notices to agents and conductors instructing them to refuse a large number of line cars and cars of connecting roads which are not supplied with automatic couplers, as required by law. Some of the other railways connecting with the Big Four are putting the ban on the cars described in the circular and the Big Four cannot handle them. It is stated by the officials of the Big Four that of the 15,000 cars of all kinds owned by the company, all but twelve have the automatic coupler. Six months ago there were but 173 of the cars not so equipped and the company has been exerting itself to get these to its shop.

The officials of the railways running through Fort Wayne have received notice from the managers that cars not equipped with automatic couplers will not be accepted for movement except in homeward direction until August 1, and after that date no cars not so equipped will be accepted under any circumstances.

ELECTRIC WORKS BALL TEAM.

The electric light base ball team has been organized for the season and are ready to meet any and all shop teams in the city. They claim the championship of the shop teams and are ready to make good their claim. The club desires to play a game with the Pennsylvania shop team and are ready to accept the challenge issued by the latter some time ago, the game to be played some Saturday afternoon. Address all challenges to Thomas Quinn, manager, or Nelson Bucher, care electric works.

LADIES ELECT OFFICERS.

The ladies' auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, at their last meeting elected the following officers:

President—Mrs. Arehart.
Vice President—Mrs. Bender.
Secretary—Mrs. Jerome.
Treasurer—Mrs. Wills.
Collector—Mrs. Bender.
Board of Trustees—Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Rodaheaver and Mrs. Wells.
Delegate—Mrs. Arehart.

The installation of officers has been postponed one week on account of the Fourth. The grand lodge meets in Des Moines in September.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

SCHOONER WAS LOST.

Belleville, Ont., July 3.—The schooner Annie Minnes arrived in port last night and her crew confirms the loss of the schooner Picton off Charlotte. The captain says he was within two miles of the Picton when she foundered, but was unable to render any assistance. The Picton was owned by Captain Sidley, of this city, who sailed her. With him perished his son, Sylvester, and the following crew, all of Belleville: Frank Smith, Walter Dunn, William Bligh and Bernard Myers.

CONSPIRATORS SENTENCED.

New York, July 3.—Justice Fursman, in the criminal term of the supreme court this morning, sentenced Alfred R. Goslin, Eugene L. Packer and Charles T. Davis, who were found guilty yesterday of conspiracy to depress the price of Brooklyn Rapid Transit stock. Goslin was sentenced to six months in jail and to pay a fine of $500, Packer and Davis to three months each and to pay a fine of $250 each.

NEWS FROM GOLD BEACH.

Seattle, Wash., July 3.—The steamer Robert Dollar has arrived in port. There were but three passengers aboard. The Dollar brings the first authentic news from Simcock. Purser Kennedy says that when they left there, several hundred miners were engaged on the beach. Squatters were still occupying the government ground. Everybody was awaiting the arrival of General Randall to settle all disputes. The expectation is that the beach line will be cleared of squatters by force if necessary. F. W. Wilcox, one of the passengers aboard the Dollar, is a government employe, and has recently completed a survey of the trail inland via Katman.

THE LUTHERAN DEACONESSES.

The Lutherans of this city will be glad for the opportunity of meeting representatives of the blessed Lutheran deaconess work. In the little garden house parsonage, with one room ten feet square and an attic over it, which still stands in the garden at Kaiserswerth, Germany, in 1833, the Lutheran pastor, Theodore Fliedner, founded the institution of Protestant Deaconess. This institution has flourished remarkably and has a strong foothold in this country, there being at least seven mother houses in the United States. The head sister of the mother house at Baltimore, together with one of the probationers, will be in the city over Thursday night and will talk of the deaconess work at Christ's Lutheran church that evening, at 8 o'clock. All are most cordially invited.

KAISER'S WAR CRY

Emperor William Notifies World that Germany Will Avenge Murder of Ketteler.

LITTLE HOPE FOR THE LEGATIONS

Berlin, July 3.—Addressing the detachment of German marines which sailed from Wilhelmshaven for China, yesterday, the emperor made a remarkable speech, during which he notified the world of Germany's intention to avenge the murder of Baron Von Ketteler, the late minister of Germany to Pekin, and the missionaries, and to dictate terms to the Chinese from the palace at Pekin. According to the Lokal Anzeiger, his majesty spoke as follows:

"The German flag has been insulted and the German empire treated with contempt. This demands exemplary punishment and vengeance. Events have moved with frightful rapidity and have become profoundly grave and still graver. Since I called you to arms what I hoped to effect with the help of the marine infantry has now become a difficult task which can only be fulfilled with the help of the serried ranks of all civilized states.

"I will not rest until the German flag, joined to those of the other powers, floats triumphantly over China's flag, and until it has been planted on the walls of Pekin to dictate peace to the Chinese. You will have to maintain good comradship with all the other troops whom you will come in contact with over yonder. Russians, British and French, all alike, are fighting for one common cause—for civilization. We must bear in mind, too, something higher—namely, our religion and the defense and protection of our brothers out there, some of whom stake their lives for the Savior. The flags which here float above you go under fire for the first time. See that you bring them back to me clean and stainless and without a spot. My thanks, my prayers and my solicitude go with you."

LITTLE HOPE REMAINS.

London, July 3.—2:10 p. m.—The fact that a relief column has been unable to leave Tein Tsin in response to the pathetic prayer of the beleagured legations at Pekin is generally regarded in London as destroying almost the last vestige of hope for the unfortunate foreigners pent up in the Chinese capital.

The worst is feared and the massacre of Cawn Pore is in every man's mind. It is beginning to be felt here that the plausible fiction that no state of war exists is no longer tenable, and a fully equipped modern army, belonging to a single nationality, is necessary to deal with the situation, instead of the assorted expedition of a half dozen nationalities. Hence arises the demand that Japan shall be given a mandate to complete the work left done in 1894, with proper security that she shall not be again squeezed out when the costly task is over.

London, July 3—2:40 p. m.—While the general British comments severely criticize American's nonparticipation in the bombardment of the Taku forts, several of the London papers are beginning to find out that Rear Admiral Kempff had better foresight than was possesed by the allied chancelleries of Europe, when he protested against an attack on the Taku forts on the ground that it would throw the Chinese governemnt into the arms of the boxers and make all the other nations technically at war with China. And the inadvisability of attacking Taku when the international forces were manifestly insufficient even to guard the legations and the Europeans in the interior from retaliation is now generally acknowledged.

From the far east there is practically no additional news. Rumors are current in aris that the British embassy had received notification of the massacre of the French and British ministers at Pekin, but there is no confirmation of the report. Shanghaur reports that the international forces at Tien-Tsin are suffering from lack of good drinking water, owing to the Bei Ho river being choked with the corpses of Chinese and other victims of the bombardment.

According to the same dispatch the international troops so far from being strong enough to advance towards Pekin, are not sufficiently numerous to attack the Chinese still surrounding Tien-Tsin and keeping up a desultory fire on the place. Thousands of Chinese are said to be arriving from Lu Tai and being ddesperately attempting to re-occupy the bridge leading to Taku.

UNDER RIFLE FIRE.

Washington, July 3.—Secretary Hay has received a cablegram from Consul General Goodnow, at Shanghai, dated July 2, which is practically a condensation of the report brought to Shanghai by a courier from Sir Robert Hart, inspector general of customs. The dispatch says:

"The diplomats and missionaries are in the British legation under rifle fire. Cannon command the legation, but they are not being used. The British, German and Italian legations are still standing."

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

Washington, July 3.—Up to noon today there had been no change here regarding the Chinese situation. No orders had gone out looking to the dispatch of increased forces, and beyond a cablegram from Consul General Goodnow, at Shanghai, reciting in brief the points of the news brought to Shanghai by the messenger from Sir Robert Hart, and conveyed at greater length in the press dispatches, nothing had been added to the information already possessed by the government, respecting the situation in Pekin. There was a disposition to take some comfort out of the statement that cannon are not being used against the legations. This was regarded as indicating that the first wild burst of fanatical rage had spent itself and that the boxers were now acting in a more reasonable manner. The date of the Pekin dispatch, however, June 25, eight days back, leaves ground for grave apprehension as to what has occurred there since.

It was accidentally discovered by the navy department today that Lieut. Albert L. Key, our naval attache to Pekin, was safe outside of the capital, and in Tokio, to which place he also is accredited.

ANARCHY IN PEKIN.

Washington, July 3.—Secretary Hay has received cablegrams from Consul Goodnow, at Shanghai, dated today, and United States Consul MacWade, at Canton. The one from Goodnow is as follows:

"On the 27th there were two legations standing. The emperor and the empress are prisoners in the palace. The city gates are closed. Prince Tuan and his force of boxers are in control of everything. Complete condition of anarchy in streets."

The cablegram from MacWade is as follows:

"Viceroy Li Hung Chang today assured me that he will immediately issue a strong proclamation commanding the preservation of peace and order in his provinces and will take the necessary measures for the protection of foreigners so far as possible. He has largely increased the force of his army."

BEHEADING THE GUARDS.

Shanghai, July 3.—Prince Tuan is said to be publicly beheading all the legation guards captured by the Chinese.

GAVE BIRTH TO TRIPLETS.

Angola, Ind., July 3.—(Special)—Thursday night Mrs. James Parsel, of Salem township, Steuben county, gave girth to triplets, all sons, whose aggregate weight was twenty pounds. All are doing well, and Mr. and Mrs. Parsel have christened the new arrivals William, Jennings and Bryan.

LEADERS WORKING TO HAVE HARMONY

A Tri-Party Conference Held in Kansas City to the End That no Fight on Platform May Occur in the Convention Hall.

THE 16 TO 1 CLAUSE WILL GO INTO THE PLATFORM

Kansas City, July 3.—At a conference between the leaders of the democrats, populists and silver republicans the result was practically a decision to incorporate a specific declaration for the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 in the democratic platform. No agreement was reached in the vice presidency.

The conference was held at the Kansas City club today. Those present were: From the democratic party there were Jones, of Arkansas; Tillman, of South Carolina; Croker, of New York; Johnson, of Kansas. From the populists there were Edmiston, of Nebraska; Weaver, of Iowa; Pettigrew, of South Dakota; Allen, of Nebraska, and Heitfield, of Idaho, and of the silver republicans there were Teller, of Colorado; Dubois, of Idaho, and Newlands, of Nevada. There were other representatives of the different parties present. The object of the meeting was to form the basis of an agreement between the three allied parties as to a vice presidential candidate.

It is suggested very strongly that neither Mr. Croker nor Mr. Hill desires the nomination of Towne for vice president. While the New York delegation has not presented formally any candidate, it is known that Hill favors the nomination of Elliott Danforth, and that Mr. Croker quietly is pressing the claims of Judge Augustus VanWyck. Stranger things have happened in many a convention than the nomination of either Danforth or VanWyck would be. Notwithstanding the fact that Towne seems now to have the most distinct call for the nomination it cannot be disguised that many delegates want a straight-out democrat on the ticket with Bryan.

So prevalent is the belief and so strong is the hold it has taken on the delegates during the past few hours, that Mr. Bryan, who is thought to favor Towne's nomination, may make a concession on the vice presidential candidate, even if he will not on the platform. The convention will be called to order at noon, and unless present plans are upset, William J. Bryan will be nominated for the presidency at the first session. He is to be presented to the American people as the Fourth of July candidate. The scene gives promise of being one of the most dramatic that ever was seen in a political convention. And then, according to program, Mr. Bryan is to be brought to Kansas City by a special notification and escort committee, and he will deliver his speech accepting the nomination in the same hall as his nomination was made.

In the hope of witnessing this great political scene thousands upon thousands of people are coming to Kansas City from the nearby states.

INDIANA DELEGATION HAS MEETING

Kensas City, July 3.—(Special.)—The Indiana delegation met at the state headquarters at noon and selected members for the several committees. The effort to defeat Hon. S. E. Morss for membership on the committee on resolutions failed.

Hugh Dougherty, of Bluffton, arose before any delegate had an opportunity to nominate him and declined, and then offered the name of Mr. Morss. George Ray nominated Henry Colerick, who at once declined, and Mr. Ray then nominated Judge Moffett, of Bloomfield, who also declined. Chairman Menzies then called for a vote on the selection of Mr. Morss and there were but two dissenting votes.

Other members of committees chosen are as follows:

Credentials—D. N. Sims, Lafayette.

Permanent Organization — Hon. Joseph Shea.

Vice President of Convention—James E. Murdock.

To Notify President of Nomination—W. H. O'Brien, of Lawrenceburg.

To Notify Vice President of Nomination—Hon. Mart Hathaway, of Winamac.

Secretary of Convention—L. W. Ellingham, of Decatur.

Rules and Order of Business—Judge William Moffett, of Bloomfield.

During the deliberations Senator D. B. Hill visited the delegation and made a speech for harmony, saying it was not necessary to take back anything nor to tell all they knew.

Mr. Morss was instructed to vote in favor of money clause in the Indiana platform.

A committee of silver republicans is now talking to the delegation.

Indiana is the most largely represented of all the states at the convention.

THOMAS FOR TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN

Kansas City, July 3.—The national democratic committee today disposed of the business before it with alacrity. The contests were first decided. Of these the Montana case was the first to be taken up. The report of the sub-committee was favorable to Clark and this report was adopted without delay. The temporary chairmanship was decided in favor of Governor Thomas, of Colorado.

GOVERNOR CHARLES S. THOMAS.
Colorado Executive Chosen for Temporary Chairman of the Democratic Convention.

The report of the sub-committee in the Montana case was unanimously in Clark's favor, although it is known that in the sub-committee's proceedings that organization was not entirely harmonious, one of its members standing out against Clark. This position was occupied by Mr. Williams, chairman of the sub-committee. He yielded gracefully, however, and today joined his colleagues in recommending that the names of the Clark men be placed up the temporary roll.

This decision was based upon the belief on the part of the members that the state convention which selected the Clark delegates contained a majority of the uncontested delegates. The Daly men announce their determination to make a vigorous fight before the committee on credentials.

The Oklahoma controversy was settled in favor of the Jacobs faction in opposition to the Spies faction. The Jacobs people were considered by the committee to have been most regular in their proceedings.

In the case of the Indian territory the difficulty was favorable to the Marcum faction also on the ground of regularity.

Mr. Marcum is the present member of the national committee and the fight was practically upon him.

The disposition of the contest from the District of Columbia was postponed until the afternoon session of the committee.

The battle over the temporary chairmanship was short but sharp. The only two candidates were Gov. C. S. Thomas, of Colorado, and Mayor S. D. Rose, of Milwaukee. Both were placed in nomination with eulogistic speeches. Senator Kenny, of Delaware, and Committeeman Clancy, of Wisconsin, spoke for Mr. Rose, and Committeeman Wilson, of Colorado, and Mr. Clayton, of Ala., for Mr. Thomas.

The vote proceeded very evenly until towards the close, when Mr. Thomas made a slight gain, which he held to the end, coming out with a majority of two. The total vote was 46, of which Thomas received 24 and Rose 22. At 11:30 the committee recessed until 4 p. m.

The selection of Thomas will round out Colorado's record in the line of supplying presiding officers for the national conventions.

Mr. Patterson was permanent chairman of the populist convention and Senator Wolcott temporary chairman of the republican convention. It was decided last night that Senator Teller should be permanent chairman of the silver republican convention.

SOME LIGHT ON THE PLATFORM

Kansas City, July 3.—Although Mr. Bryan stoutly maintains his position and insists upon 16 to 1 in the platform, a determination has been reached by those who are willing to accept a reaffirmation of the Chicago platform, to make a fight for that position. With a large portion of New York, all of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin in favor of a modification of the platform and with a number of southern delegates willing to take the same course, it is believed that a good fight can be put up against the 16 to 1 declaration. Conferences have been held with that end in view and if there is any prospect of winning the fight will be made. An effort is being made to ascertain the complexion of the committee on resolutions, with the expressed hope that a conservative majority may be secured.

IT MAY BE TOWNE OR DANFORTH

Kancas City, Mo., July 3.—The Towne men today are more confident than ever that they will nominate their man for vice president. They say the fight is between Towne and Danforth, of New York, and the question of expediency will now be considered. Danforth is the personal and political friend of David B. Hill. Already, the point is being made that he is Hill's candidate and that he is to be named for the purpose of conciliating Hill for the

BRYAN STANDS FIRM

The Democratic Platform Must be Specific on Silver or He Will Not be a Candidate.

AUTHORIZED FRIENDS SPEAK OUT

Kansas City, Mo., July 3.—"Bryan will not run on any platform which does not contain a specific declaration in favor of free coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1. If this convention does not put that declaration in the platform it will have to nominate another candidate for president." This statement was made today to the Associated Press by Judge A. S. Tibbitts, of Lincoln, delegate-at-large from Mr. Bryan's own state, and chairman of the state delegation to this convention. It serves to emphasize the determined stand taken by the Nebraska statesman. His declaration is that he stands for a principle and those who would have him change or modify his views are swinging simply in the wind of expediency. Cato Sells, chairman of the Iowa delegation, who had a three hours' conference with Mr. Bryan just before he came to Kansas City, not only reaffirms the statement made by Judge Tibbetts, but amplifies it.

"After talking with Mr. Bryan for some time," said Mr. Sells, "with respect to his position and to the attitude his friends ought to assume in this convention, I asked him this blunt question:

"'Suppose the convention should refuse to adopt a platform containing a distinct declaration in favor of free coinage at 16 to 1?'

"'Then,' said Mr. Bryan, emphatically, 'I will not run as the candidate.'"

That the convention will bow to Mr. Bryan's desires nobody who comes in contact with the delegates can doubt for an instant. Some discordant elements are here, but they are not menacing. A few men assert with a positiveness quite serious, that they propose to carry the fight to the floor of the convention. Such a contest in the convention would be doubtless, a dramatic, perhaps a sensational, performance; but it would not only serve any useful purpose, but would put away the chance of a victory next fall, which now is the beacon light of every loyal democrat. To effect the big ratification meeting in Philadelphia the democratic leaders are urging every possible recalcitrant to get into line for harmony.

Kansas City, July 3.—In an effort to modify Mr. Bryan's expressed views in favor of an explicit declaration on the silver question, the following telegram was sent him today:

"W. J. Bryan, Lincoln, Neb.: It is [illegible] that a simple reaffirmation of the Chicago platform, with additional planks on trusts and imperialism should be adopted. The convention is in the hands of your friends; your advice is important. Such a platform concedes nothing and insures victory.

AN EXODUS FROM LINCOLN

Lincoln, Neb., July 3.—The tide of democratic humanity turned outward from Lincoln today, most of Mr. Bryan's visitors leaving on early morning trains for Kansas City. By tonight practically all will be gone and to add to the exodus are 500 members of Lincoln democratic marching clubs.

Congressman James Kerr, of Pennsylvania, the last man with a special mission to arrive from Kansas City, following closely on the heels of David B. Hill, was as uncommunicative as his predecessor as to his visit and its object.

The impression gains ground that the Nebraska delegates are the authorized keepers of the Bryan secret and that his wishes concerning the platform and second place on the ticket, if he has any choice of running mates, will be divulged when the proper time arrives, by the men from his own state.

DELEGATE GOSSIP.

Kansas City, July 3.—The entire New Jersey delegation arrived on one of the early morning trains and took up quarters at the Victoria. The delegation held a caucus on the train before arriving and elected the following:

Chairman, Johnson Cornish; committee on credentials, Frank McDermott; committee on rules and order of business, James E. Martine; committee on resolutions, Congressman W. D. Daly; member national committee, William B. Gralye; vice president, Josiah Salmons.

The delegation did not come to any conclusion in regard to the vice presidency or the platform.

RHODE ISLAND.

George W. Greene, of Woonsocket, R. I., headed the delegation from that state when it came into the Baltimore hotel today. "We are for 16 to 1," he said, "but we are not in favor of forcing it too strongly. It does us no good in the east if we do so, and I do not think that it will materially change chances of election in the west. However, Mr. Bryan wants it, and I think the democracy has a better chance to win with him on a 16 to 1 platform than with any other man on any platform, so we will have to let it go at that. The main thing is to have a democratic victory and we will have to adopt the most logical means to that result. On the vice presidency we are for the candidate of the party and we have not been long enough on the ground to form an opinion as to whom that man may be."

OHIO.

The Ohio delegation spent two hours today in debate over the resolutions to be adopted in regard to the national platform, the line between the advocates of a 16 to 1 plank and those favoring the simple reaffirmation of the Chicago platform being sharply divided. Previous to this the delegation unanimously resolved to support Judge A. W. Patrick for vice president on the first ballot at least and after the platform issue had been settled another contest took place over the election of national committeeman, John R. McLean being finally chosen over former Congressman Tom L. Johnson.

The caucus organized by electing Colonel James Kilbourne as chairman. H. L. Chapman was placed in nomination as a member of the committee on resolutions. This started a lively debate. A delegate from northeast Ohio asked Governor Chapman to define his views on the proposed leading planks of the platform, and the latter complied in an impassioned speech, in which he declared that imperialism and trusts, but especially imperialism, were the all-important issues before the people.

"These are questions which must be settled now and forever," he declared. "Questions affecting the monetary system can easily be settled, but unless imperialism and militarism are throttled now, they will lead to revolution and bloodshed."

"Governor, are you in favor of the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and the insertion of a plank to that effect in the platform?" asked a delegate.

"No, I am not," said Governor Chapman, emphatically.

Considerable confusion followed. A number of delegates hotly advocated the specific endorsement of free coinage. General A. J. Warner, amid cries of dissent from several delegates, made an argument in favor of a simple endorsement of the Chicago platform.

GEORGIA.

"In our opinion," said J. J. Spalding, of Georgia, on arrival of the delegation from that state today, "the proper thing for the convention to do is to reaffirm the silver plank of the Chicago platform. There are a great many good democrats in the east who will not give the ticket their full support if the silver plank is made too strong and there should be some concession to them if it will help them to win out in November. From all we hear, however, I think that there is little doubt that a straight plank will go into the platform regarding silver. Whatever Mr. Bryan wants will suit us, but we are willing that the matter should be administered mildly. We have not made up our minds as a delegation regarding the vice presidency, but any man who has the endorsement of New York and Indiana will do for us.

BRYAN FIRM.

WISCONSIN.

Sentiment infavor of the nomination of David B. Hill for vice president expressed by National Committeeman Clancy was re-echoed by a number of members of the Wisconsin delegation who arrived today.

"But we have not decided whom to support for the nomination," said Former Governor George R. Peck. "The delegation will caucus this afternoon and discuss the matter."

"Discuss it," chimed in another delegate; "we have discussed it and the platform too. Many of us favor David B. Hill. We don't want to take too radical a stand on the silver question. Issues are more important."

PENNSYLVANIA.

Considerable disappointment was manifest among the Pennsylvania delegates today over the announcement that Bryan will insist upon the adoption of a 16 to 1 plank in the platform.

James Kerr, secretary of the national congressional committee, and Former Congressman Mutchler, returned from their visit to Lincoln this morning. Their mission was fruitless. Mr. Kerr said he found Mr. Bryan firm for a specific declaration in the platform and for the nomination of a candidate for the vice presidency who shall be thoroughly in harmony with the head of the ticket and the platform.

NEW YORK.

The New York delegation does not meet until 3 o'clock, but, it is understood, will at that time name Senator Murphy for chairman of the delegation, Lewis Nixon for vice president of the convention and Norman E. Mack for national committeeman. A new name suggested for New York member of the committee on platform is Judge Van Wyck, but it is believed that Senator Hill will serve.

MICHIGAN.

The Michigan delegation arrived today and announced itself as favorable to Towne for vice president.

"We are not instructed for him," said Rush Culver, delegate-at-large, "but we have passed resolutions saying that we heartily approve of his candidacy. On the silver plank we are for reaffirmation, as we think that carries enough endorsement for the 16 to 1 plank of the Chicago platform."

HILL CALLS ON INDIANA.

Kansas City, July 3.—Mr. Hill went to the Indiana headquarters today and made a speech to the delegation. His remarks were general in terms, but advocated conservative action as a means of democratic success. He was loudly cheered by the delegates and as he passed through the crowd when returning to his room there were many shouts of "Hill," "Hill," interspersed with cheers.

WANT HARMONY.

manner in which his suggestions were treated by Mr. Bryan on his recent visit to Lincoln. This is a feature, however, which cuts both ways, as there is an element among the delegates who do not feel like offering anything in the way of olive branches. It is known that Hill and his friends have some hesitancy about pushing Danforth for the nomination, because they have doubts of success if there is a distinct declaration for 16 to 1. The fact that the New Yorkers seem willing to allow the convention to take its own course without making any determined effort to name a candidate has given the Towne men a great deal of encouragement and they are today more aggressive than ever. But from the quarters of the eastern men, particularly New York and the Sulzer element, comes a story of a different nature. The eastern delegation is absolutely quiescent on any of the direct issues in the platform or as to candidates. They assert that they are for anything the western silver delegates may decide upon. Hill's name, they say, will not be considered.

BELMONT NOT CONSIDERED.

Belmont, who has been mentioned, is not even considered by the silver element. Western and southern representatives assert that the fight for the vice presidential situation has narrowed down to two men, both personal friends of William J. Bryan, and both alleged to be absolutely acceptable. They are Towne, of Minnesota, and Sulzer, of New York. Of the two men they agree Towne has the better of the contest, because it is pointed out that he will represent a fusion of all the silver elements.

Mr. Sulzer was inclined to be reticent today when he was told of this situation. He admitted that he knew the east had practically decided to let the convention be dominated by the western men, and admitted that Mr. Towne was the leader in the race by saying:

"Mr. Towne is very acceptable to Mr. Bryan. If Mr. Towne is thought to be the better man by the leaders, I will withdraw for him. We understand each other perfectly, and Mr. Bryan understands us. Mr. Towne has the advantage of already being on two tickets, but I claim to offset that by being strong in the east and particularly in my own state and city."

New York state's headquarters, in absolute quiet this morning, gave practical confirmation of the story that the delegation had determined to let the west dominate and conduct the convention. There were very few of the New York delegates about during the morning, and those who were asserted very firmly:

"We don't care what they do."

The second Tammany hall delegation arrived about 4 o'clock this morning and they were too tired to care much about the situation. Mr. Croker, asked to give his views on the situation, said today:

"I don't know anything about it. We're for the ticket, and the platform, whatever they are," and one of his lieutenants, P. F. Trainor, added:

"We're letting Bryan's friends run it."

Elliott Danforth was not disposed to talk, merely remarking:

"I know that I am mentioned, but I am not putting forth any effort. I am inclined to believe that the real contest is between Mr. Sulzer and Mr. Towne."

The New York delegation is to meet this afternoon and one of the significant rumors of the morning is to the effect that Senator Patrick H. McCaren, of Brooklyn, is to be the selection for member of the committee on resolutions, so that Hill will not be compelled to put himself on record on the platform or to object to any of its promises. One thing is absolutely sure and that is that the delegation will refuse to give in any way expression to its views as to a vice presidential candidate. Even Mr. Sulzer admits this, although he says that he has the support of Richard Croker and Edward Murphy.

A circular on the street this morning is signed by a committee representing the Chicago platform democrats of New York, and urges the convention to refuse to seat Richard Croker, John F. Carroll, Mayor Van Wyck, Judge Van Wyck, Corporation Counsel John Whalen, Board of Aldermen President Guggenheimer, on the ground that they are shareholders in the "American Ice Trust, and no one knows in how many other trusts, and David B. Hill is the principal attorney for other trusts and the destroyer of the Ulster county Chicago platform petition in 1897."

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, was among today's early arrivals. He immediately announced himself for Towne for vice president, but said that he did not consider it necessary to make specific declaration on the ratio when declaring for silver.

"With Bryan at the head of the ticket," he said, "we need no platform. His position is such that no man can question it."

WOULD NOT HAVE IT.

"I don't want it. I won't take it. I wouldn't have it," said Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, today, when asked if he was a candidate for the vice presidency.

"I'm not looking for anything," he continued.

"But some of the Illinois delegation are for you for vice president."

"Well," said the mayor, "they'd better get off and get off quick and get with the winner. Illinois wants a man from the east and a man from New York. I am for Elliott Danforth and for him strong, and I believe the support of the Illinois delegation will be given him. I think he is the strongest man the convention can name."

A NEW FACTOR.

A new factor was introduced into the vice presidential situation later in the day by an effort to unite the Indiana and New York delegations on the question. There is a strong possibility that before evening the two delegations will have agreed upon a man whom they will unitedly press before the convention as a candidate. As many of the other states have already declared themselves as being willing to accept any man who has been proclaimed by the democracy of New York, as capable of carrying that state in the fall election, there is but small doubt that any man having the dual endorsement of Indiana and New York will be a formidable factor.

DANFORTH THE MAN.

It was reported that Danforth, of New York, had been named as the man whom the two states would agree on. This story, upon investigation, however, proved to be somewhat premature, as at 11 o'clock the two delegations had not agreed upon any one, and there was small prospect that they would do so for several hours.

"There has been no agreement between the two states that I know of," said Mr. Shively, of Indiana, "and I would not care to be quoted as saying that there will be a formal agreement of any sort."

"But will there not be an informal agreement that will carry the same weight?"

SHIVELY'S VIEW OF IT.

"That is a different thing," said Mr. Shively, with a smile. "And I would not be surprised to see some such step taken, but I am quite sure that nothing of importance has been done up to the present time. It will be several hours before the matter is in definite shape, however, and what that shape will be I am unable to predict. I will say, however, that from what I know at the present time, Mr. Danforth will not be agreed upon as the most available man. He may be, but the indications just now are that it will be somebody else."

"There has been no agreement reached between the two states regarding a vice presidential candidate," said Hugh Dougherty, delegate-at-large from Indiana. "Some steps have been taken in that direction, but they have not as yet produced any result. It is likely that they will have something to show within a short time, however. No man has been agreed upon as yet, but Mr. Danforth's name may have been considered. I will not say whether it has been or not, but no definite agreement has been reached regarding him."

MR. DOUGHERTY ON MR. TOWNE.

When Mr. Towne's name was mentioned, Mr. Dougherty said:

"We all have the highest regard for Mr. Towne as a man, but I wish to say that I (and there are many others of the same opinion as myself) am not willing that under any circumstances shall Mr. Towne have the second place on the ticket. He is a most excellent man, but there are other excellent men who have been democrats all their lives, have given much time and work and made many sacrifices for the good of the democratic party, and I think that one of these men should be rewarded in preference to Mr. Towne, who has not been a member of the party all his political life. Personally, I am in favor of the nomination of Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia."

"Has his name been considered by the New York and Indiana delegations?"

DOUGHERTY DENIES ALLIANCE

"The matter is not far enough advanced at this time for me to say that any man has been really considered," was the most definite reply that Mr. Doughrety could be induced to make. Mr. Dougherty wished it distinctly understood that there was no hard and fast alliance between the states of Indiana and New York. They were simply trying to get together on a vice presidential candidate who could run stronger in both states than any other man.

One of the most significant happenings of the day in the vice presidential situation occurred during the forenoon in the New York headquarters and when it became known the sentiment for the nomination of Eliot Danforth took a more pronounced turn. Mayor Maguire, of Syracuse, the New York state silver leader, and Treasurer Hughes, of the New York state democratic committee, who have been in Lincoln, arrived here this morning and went immediately to the New York state headquarters. There they found Mr. Danforth chatting with his friends. Mr. Maguire called him aside and said:

DANFORTH EXPLAINS.

"Mr. Danforth, if you are a candidate for vice president, we are with you."

Mr. Danforth replied:

"I am not a candidate. All my desires, as you gentlemen know, are confined to my own state. I do not desire to go to Washington and if nominated and elected it would interfere with all my plans. I am much obliged, but my highest aspiration in politics is to serve my party in my state."

Mr. Maguire: "But if the people want you, you can't decline."

Mr. Danforth replied: "No, but I don't want it. You know what I want in New York."

Mr. Maguire: "Well, if the matter is brought up in the New York state delegation this afternoon we shall vote for you."

IS CLOSE TO BRYAN.

The significance of this interview is that as Mr. Maguire is close to Mr. Bryan and has just returned from several days' visit, he may voice the wish of Mr. Bryan, to have New York state represented on the ticket, and represented by Mr. Danforth.

Asked point-blank by an Associated Press reporter if that were the case, Mr. Maguire said cautiously:

"Mr. Bryan feels friendly towards Mr. Danforth. He would not, I am sure, object to his being on the ticket."

The office in New York state to which Mr. Danforth admits being partial is that of governor, and it is because it is believed he would be a strong candidate there and so help the national ticket that some of the leaders do not favor forcing the vice presidential nomination upon him.

DANFORTH OR TOWNE.

As the day wore on the impression spread among the delegates that the convention will either nominate Danforth or Towne, and that element which felt that a democrat should be named was more strongly in favor of Danforth. The men who have been in favor of a modified platform were among those who turned their attention toward a New York man and who saw in Mr. Danforth the most available candidate. It is understood that the southern delegations were very pronounced against Towne and that some states had declared for Danforth.

The Towne men have started a canvass of delegates and are trying to make a poll of the different delegations to ascertain the strength of the Minnesota candidates.

DEATH'S RECORD OF THE DAY

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR WILLIAM H. BRADY.

Ludwig Kelpin and James S. Thompson Called From Earth — Other Mortuary Matters.

Funeral services for the late William H. Brady were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence in Lakeside, and a large concourse of friends were present to pay their tribute of respect to his memory. Rev. Samuel Wagenhals, of Trinity English Lutheran church, officiated. The Rurode Dry Goods company, with which store Mr. Brady was connected for so many years, was closed during the day, and the employes attended the services in a body. The pall-bearers were made up from among the oldest employes of the store, and included Messrs. C. F. F. Meyer, William Lange, U. Shoffman, William Harkins, Fred Straussberg and Christopher Kramer. The interment at Lindenwood was private.

KELPIN.

Ludwig Kelpin, 29 years of age, died at 5 o'clock this morning at his home on South Hanna street, after an illness of five weeks from stomach trouble. Mr. Kelpin was born in Germany, and leaves a wife and three children. Mr. Kelpin was formerly employed at the Bass foundry.

The funeral announcement will be made later.

FAHLSING.

William F. Fahlsing, for many years a resident of this city, died at 6:30 o'clock this morning at his home, 334 East Washington street, at the age of 62 years. Little more than a week ago Mr. Fahlsing suffered slight stroke of paralysis, and he declined slowly until his death this morning.

He was a native of Germany, but came to Fort Wayne when a young man and has resided here ever since that time. For nearly fifteen years he was a bailiff of the circuit court. His wife died but two months ago. Eight children survive—Mrs. Louise Kendall, Mrs. Frank Martin, the Misses Minnie, Anna and Clara Fahlsing and Messrs. Will, Charles and Otto Fahlsing, the three sons residing in Chicago.

The funeral services will be held from the residence on Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. Miller, of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

THOMPSON.

James Spicer Thompson, a life-long resident of Allen county, died at the home of his son, on Piqua avenue, Monday evening, at 6 o'clock, after a protracted illness from palsy. Mr. Thompson's age was 62 years, 3 years and 4 days. He was born at Hesse Cassel, and until a few years ago resided in that vicinity.

The funeral services will be held from the residence at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Kohrman.—Funeral services of Mrs. Mary A. Kohrman will be held on Wednesday morning at 8:30 from the residence, 197 West Superior street, and at 9 o'clock from St. Paul's Catholic church.

Fleming. — Funeral services of James W. Fleming will be held from the residence in Perry township Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. L. L. Henson will officiate and the interment will be at Lindenwood.

They could sell neither their lands nor houses, and could take with them only a little ready money. [illegible] Moreover, when expelled from Russia, they had no land to which to turn. Long ago Palestine had been parceled out among its powerful neighbors.

Our race will be destroyed! See how Russia has treated Poland; The Russians banished all the able-bodied men and allowed only the old men to remain in the country. Therefore the Polish race has been exterminated. At present the women of India are married to foreigners. Everybody knows that the races of India are in danger of being exterminated. Today the white races predominate over the entire globe. Among the yellow races the Chinese only wield any political influence and rule their own country. If our country should be conquered and its government controlled by foreigners they would assuredly treat us as they have treated the Poles and the Hindus. We, our children, and our grandchildren, would be altogether exterminated."

There is more to the same purport. Japan, only, is excepted from the list of enemies. "China and Japan hold the same close relationship to each other as do the lips to the teeth," says the author. He refers to the size of China, larger than sixteen powers of Europe, with 400,000,000 people, yet "we are despised, insulted and murdered by other people." There is an appeal to the Chinese who live beyond the seas, "numbering at least 5,000,000," who "are also daily abused and insulted by those among whom they live," and the whole is concluded by a fierce denunciation of the dowager empress and the incompetent government at Pekin.

In Europe the opinion holds that Great Britain is not blameless in the matter of the famine in India. It is stated that when there are crops in that unfortunate country three-fifths of it are taken by the tax-gatherers, leaving but two-fifths for the [illegible] of this heavy taxation a very small proportion goes for the benefit of the country, the remainder going to the official family, that a famine fund raised some years ago [illegible] has been diverted to [illegible]. These charges are serious in their way, but, true or false, Great Britain has not done its full duty in relieving the distress of its dependency, which might have been done effectively at vastly less cost than the prosecution of the war in South Africa. The subjugation of the Afrikanders has borne grievously on India, whose distress has excited much more pity and elicited more aid in America than in England.

SOME BIG FIGURES.

Wm. P. Cooper, general agent of the New York Life, calls attention to an interesting compilation of losses paid by life insurance companies as shown by the Insurance Press, of New York city.

The amount paid in death losses in Indiana was $2,180,405, and of this large sum there was paid in Fort Wayne $145,491, besides special assessments made by the regular life insurance companies. To these figures must be added the year's disbursements by the fraternal and assessment societies, of which no complete report is at hand, but it is fair to presume that the grand total of Fort Wayne receipts from death losses in 1899 will closely approximate $200,000.

A contrast between these payments and the amount paid by fire insurance companies in Fort Wayne during the past year is interesting. The official record of Chief of Fire Department Hilbrecht shows that the fire losses paid in 1899 were $160,455, which includes $132,750 on account of the great DeWald-Kayser conflagration. The fire losses paid in 1898 were but $92,174, and in 1897, $107,115, which includes the Morgan & Beach fire.

TUGBOAT CAPTAINS FOR REFUSING TO SAVE LIFE.

A SENSATION IN HOBOKEN

MAYOR HAGAN MAKES BRAVE ANNOUNCEMENT.

HUNTING FOR THE VICTIMS

BODIES OF VICTIMS OF FIRE ARE RECOVERED.

New York, July 3.—A sensation was created today by an announcement from Mayor Fagan, of Hoboken, that he will prosecute all tugboat captains against whom charges of refusing to save life during the North German Lloyd fire can be substantiated.

The mayor says he will apply at once for warrants charging two tugboat captains with murder and that he has evidence to prove that these men used boathooks to keep drowning men from climbing on their tugs because the unfortunates had no money. An effort is to be made also to have the licenses of offending captains revoked.

SEARCHING FOR BODIES.

New York, July 3.—The search for bodies of persons who perished in the fire at the North German Lloyd company's piers in Hoboken was resumed today. Up to the stoppage of work [illegible] 67 bodies had been recovered. Four of these were still on the Saale, where they were found.

Wreckers [illegible] today continued their work on the Main and Bremen [illegible] bodies believed to be on board. Many persons are known to have perished in these ships and the search for their remains will be kept up, but it is feared that any recovered will be unrecognizable.

The body of an unknown man, thought to be one of the victims of the fire, was found at the foot of Essex street, Jersey City, this morning. It was almost nude and was removed to an undertaking shop.

All the injured in the Jersey City hospitals were reported to be doing as well as could be expected today. [illegible] the most seriously injured of these patients is suffering from [illegible] smoke.

[illegible] in Bellevue hospital, New York, have almost fully recovered, and all of them, probably, will leave that institution some time today. They will be cared for by the North German Lloyd company.

Two bodies of fire victims remained at the New York morgue this morning. They are those of Charles Drummond, an upholsterer of Union Hill, N. J., who lost his life while working on the Saale, and of August Weber, a machinist on the Saale, which were at the morgue, were removed [illegible] an undertaking [illegible].

Up to 8:00 a.m. seven bodies had been taken from the river today. This includes the one found off Essex street, Jersey City and swelled the total of dead found to 71.

THE POLICE NEWS.

Yesterday afternoon Officer Gorr arrested two tramps in Nebraska who seemed to be under the influence of liquor. As he was following them some children who were playing on the street told him that they had seen them throw something away. A search was made and [illegible] the children and the officer [illegible] watch and chain, some [illegible] and several other little trinkets. The officer arrested them and [illegible] the names of the two men and locked them up. They gave their names as Frank Cooper and Frank Aukea. [illegible] Mr. Albert Hitzler, [illegible] had been entered [illegible] the jewelry [illegible] promptly [illegible]. This morning Miss Hitzler [illegible] Albert Hitzler appeared at police court and identified the watch and chain as his property. Cooper was arraigned on burglary and larceny and was bound over to the circuit court and sent to jail. Aukea, who it appears was not implicated in the robbery, was fined for drunkenness on a plea of guilty and sent to jail for seventeen days.

William Arnold told Acting Mayor Bull that it was the first time he was ever arrested and the first time he was ever drunk. His honor assessed the usual fine but suspended sentence.

Ed Ducey, trackkeeper on the Superior street sewer, acknowledged that he had thrown a brick at Fred Bierbaum, a discharged employe, because he insisted on having his money forthwith, but says he can't throw well and missed him. Asked to account for Bierbaum's beautifully decorated eye and generally used up appearance, Mr. Ducey doubled up a tiny fist, showing up a diamond ring to good advantage, and said he did it with that. The judge thereupon assessed a fine of $12, which was paid. Bierbaum then pleaded guilty to being drunk and went to jail for eleven days.

Pat Murphy took the usual limit for being drunk and Charles Stadley forfeited his bail rather than miss the opportunity of getting full again on the Fourth.

GREET THE ROUGH RIDER

THOUSANDS IN OKLAHOMA CITY TODAY.

Governor Roosevelt the Center of Attraction to Natives and Visitors.

Oklahoma City, O. T., July 3.—Governor Theodore Roosevelt arose early today and after breakfast with General Metcalf, of the Twentieth Kansas, Paul Morton and a few other guests in Mr. Morton's private car, the governor began to put in his time exchanging greetings with his old comrades. Everybody in town, and it is estimated that besides the population of 15,000 there are 10,000 strangers within the city's gates, seemed anxious to meet Oklahoma City's distinguished guest and grasp his hand. Indians, cowboys, regular army men and rough riders were his constant attendants throughout the day.

The weather was extremely hot and dry.

The Rough Riders' reunion was fairly inaugurated today by a civic and military parade, in which Governor Roosevelt was given the place of honor. During its progress through the streets the Rough Riders and their famous commander were greeted with extraordinary demonstrations of enthusiasm from the throngs which lined the streets. The parade proceeded to the compress grounds, where the formal exercises of the day took place. The welcoming address in behalf of Oklahoma territory was given by Governor Cassius M. Barnes and in behalf of the city by Mayor Lee Van Winkle. The address of the day was by Governor Roosevelt.

IN THE COURTS.

Monday evening Judge Vesey granted a divorce to the defendant in the action of Edwin E. Vernon vs. Elizabeth Vernon. He also gave her the custody of their minor children.

About eight weeks ago a Nickel Plate train was stoned by some boys near Edgerton and several arrests followed, the culprits serving a jail sentence of forty-three days. One of the lads got away and was not apprehended until yesterday afternoon when Sheriff Melching's deputy at Woodburn, Conrad Nagel, espied him there and placed him under arrest. He was brought to this city and lodged in jail last night and this morning, in Baltzman's court, he pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs. He will board it out at the Hotel de Melching.

The circuit and superior courts will not be in session again before Monday.

MARRIED THIS MORNING.

Vance E. Hammell and Miss Claudia E. Seaman were united in marriage this morning, the ceremony being performed at 10 o'clock at the residence of [illegible] by Rev. L. J. [illegible], of Christ's English Lutheran church. Mr. Hammell was formerly employed at the electric light works, but is now in charge of the Standard Oil company's interests at North Baltimore, Ohio. His bride is a prominent young lady residing south of the city. They will take up their residence at North Baltimore, Ohio.

WINONA ASSEMBLY BEGINS

SIXTH ANNUAL SESSION IS INAUGURATED.

Enrollment For the Summer School Is Large—Greatest Season is Already Promised.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Winona Lake, Ind., July 3.—The Winona Assembly and Summer School opened its sixth annual session last evening in the Auditorium with an address by Mrs. Maude Ballington Booth. Mrs. Booth and Miss Webb, her traveling companion, arrived in the afternoon and took rooms at the Winona hotel.

Mrs. Booth's subject last night was "Lights and Shadows of Prison Life." The lecture was intensely interesting, the audience large. Dr. Sol. C. Dickey, the season presiding elder, was unable to be present at the opening, he being east on business connected with the assembly.

The Summer School opened yesterday, under the general superintendency of Dr. W. P. Kane, president of Wabash college. The day was spent in organizing, the first session being held this morning. General recitation rooms are on the second floor of the Commercial block, but classes meet in other buildings and in the park. Nearly a hundred students enrolled during the day, and by tonight the number is expected to reach fully 300. The major portion of the students, however, will not arrive till after the Fourth. But one session will be held on the Fourth—in the morning.

The attendance is the largest ever known at the opening, and promises to far eclipse the general attendance of last season, which was second largest of any religious resort in the United States, coming up close to the Chautauqua. More than half the cottages are occupied and the hotels and boarding houses are fast filling up. All the cottages are engaged and judging from the demands almost twice as many could be let. About twenty-five new cottages have been built since last season.

While the crowds this season promise to be larger than ever before, the attractions are far greater. Besides Mrs. Booth, there are on the program E. P. Brown, editor of Ram's Horn; Dr. J. P. D. John, Will Cumback, John G. White, George L. McNutt, George R. Wendling, Herr Gustavus Cohen, Charles Montaville Flowers, Rev. Sam Jones, Rev. S. Parks Cadman, Leon Vincent and many others.

This afternoon John E. Wiley is scheduled for a lecture on "A Ramble Among Words," and this evening an entertainment will be given by the Wabash Glee club.

A most interesting program has been aranged for the Fourth. Ex-Governor Will Cumback will deliver the oration in the afternoon. In the morning there is general golf playing and in the afternoon a crack professional game, besides general field athletics, for which liberal prizes are offered. Excursions are provided on all roads.

WHITE MAN TURNED YELLOW.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty, of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. Only 50c. Sold by Dreier Bros., druggists.

The 2:25 Pace at mile track on the 4th will be a big card. The clip will be a merry one. 2t2

DEATH IN FLAMES

TWELVE PERISH IN HOBOKEN FIRETRAP.

AN EARLY MORNING BLAZE BREAKS OUT.

KILLED IN WRECK ON RAIL

TWO DEAD AND THIRTY-THREE INJURED.

New York, July 3.—Fire in a crowded tenement at Nos. 141 and 143 Adams street, in Hoboken, N. J., early this morning, caused the loss of twelve lives. Up to noon four of the bodies had not been identified.

Three of the bodies were of men and one that of a girl about 16 years old.

THE DEAD.

The identified dead are as follows:

Joseph Nicolaus, aged 28, musician.

August Bachman, aged 24, musician.

August Biendel, aged 25, musician.

Etta Winkler, 12 years old.

Edith Winkler, 5 years old.

Charles Winkler, 11 years old.

Frederick Winkler, 9 years old.

William Winkler, 5 years old.

Out of nine members of the Winkler family but four were saved, Mr. and Mrs. Winkler and their two children, John, aged 12 years, and Martha, 11 months.

Mrs. Winkler was badly burned while clinging to her infant. Her husband had to drag her and the infant through a window to save their lives.

The building was a frame structure, three stories high, and several families lived on each floor. When the flames started they burned rapidly and the firemen could do little either to extinguish the fire or to save life.

A DISASTROUS WRECK.

Butte, Mont., July 3.—A very disastrous wreck occurred late last night on the Montana Central railroad, a branch of the Great Northern, at Trask siding, twelve miles from here, by which two persons were killed and thirty three injured.

The dead:

John L. Kelly, 8 years old, Salt Lake.

John Luceaki, Great Falls, Mont.

The train left Butte at 8.30 last night and was on its way to Helena. It had made the climb up the Continental divide in safety and was rushing along at top speed on comparatively level ground, when the rails spread, ditching the baggage car, smoker, day coach and sleeper.

The engine and one baggage car remained on the track. The cars were thrown over on their sides and the passengers who were not injured, or slightly so, climbed out through the windows. All the lights were extinguished and from different parts of the wreck came calls for help and groans and cries of the injured.

Conductor Zick, who was injured, made his way back to Woodville, five miles, and telegraphed to Butte for help.

A special train with doctors and nurses was dispatched from this city and brought in the injured, who were taken to the different hospitals.

SOMETHING OF A HITCH.

St. Louis, Mo., July 3.—There was great rejoicing throughout the city today when it was announced that the St. Louis Transit company and the strikers' grievance committee had come to an agreement and that the strike that had been on for just eight weeks had been declared off. There seems to be a hitch in the matter, however. It developed today that many of the strikers are not pleased with the agreement signed by the grievance committee. They assert that the committee had no final authority to call off the strike. They did have authority, the men declare, to come to an agreement as to the ending of the strike along the lines proposed by President Gompers, of the Federation of Labor. The committee's authority extended that far and no further, they say. A meeting was called for 3 o'clock this afternoon, when the strikers will consider the agreement signed last night by President Whittaker, for the Transit company, and Chairman Edwards, for the grievance committee.

A GIFT TO FRANCE.

THE WASHINGTON STATUE IS PRESENTED.

THE CEREMONY WAS NOTABLE

ADDRESS TO THE FRENCH BY AMBASSADOR PORTER.

STATUE ACCEPTED BY MINISTER DELCASSE.

Paris, July 3.—The ceremonies connected with the unveiling of the equestrian statue of Washington, the gift of an association of American women for the presentation of a statue of Washington to France, passed off today according to program and under favorable circumstances. Sousa's band was in attendance. The United States ambassador, Gen. Horace Porter, presided and delivered an address.

GENERAL PORTER'S ADDRESS.

It was as follows:

"First let me extend a cordial greeting and an earnest welcome to all who have gathered here to participate in the impressive ceremonies which are to follow. The occasion is fraught with peculiar interest. We come together today to dedicate a statue of Washington in the home of Lafayette. The patriotic ladies of America in presenting this gift to our sister republic could not perpetuate in enduring bronze a more exalted character. His name is the synonymn of unselfish patriotism, sublime heroism, unswerving virtue. When entrusted with the task of defending the liberties of his country, his towering genius brought order out of chaos, turned weaklings into giants and snatched victory from defeat. His modesty was equal to his courage. He never underated himself in a battle; he never overrated himself in a report. He reached the highest pinnacle of human greatness and covered the earth with his renown. His name will stand immortal when epitaphs have vanished utterly and monuments have crumbled into dust. His ashes were laid to rest in the bosom of the soil his efforts saved, but his true sepulchre is the hearts of his countrymen."

Consul General Gowdy made the presentation, and the French minister of foreign affairs, M. Delcasse, accepted in behalf of France.

M. DELCASSE SPEAKS.

M. Delcasse, in accepting the statue, said:

"The thought of offering France a statue of the hero who was the incarnation of the virtue of his race could not but go to the heart of this country. But it touched it more particularly when coming from the American women, who unite so perfectly valor with grace. I beg the women of the United States to accept, with my respectful homage, the profound thanks of the French nation. He whose noble image has just been unveiled may perhaps be cited as an example for the world, but, especially, to the citizens of a democracy. I doubt if another could be found in history who could reunite in the same degree the qualities demanded for the guidance of a free people."

Colonel Charles Chaille Long delivered an oration.

The equestrian statue of Washington is in bronze and is about fifteen feet in height to the top of the head of Washington, and from twenty-two to twenty-three feet to the point of the uplifted sword. Washington is represented in full military costume, taking command of the American army at Cambridge, July 3, 1776, and drawing his sword to the service of his country.

The pedestal was designed by Charles F. McKim, of McKim, Mace & White, and it is of Milford granite and Knoxville marble and is about fourteen feet in height and classic in treatment. The statue was cast in bronze in New York by the Henry Bonnard Bronze Co., and the pedestal was executed in the United States. The architect is an American and the two sculptors, Mr. Daniel C. French, who modelled the figure of Washington, and Mr. Edward C. Potter, who made the horse, are both Americans. The whole monument, therefore, is essentially American.

The following portion of the address was delivered in French:

"I am deeply sensible of the honor which has been assigned me of welcoming upon this occasion the high officials of France, the distinguished representatives of foreign powers and the citizens, both French and American, who honor this ceremony by their presence.

"Fifteen years ago a large number of the people of France, animated by their friendship for America, sent there the imposing statue executed by Bartholdi, which is at present the most conspicuous monument in the harbor of New York. "Liberty Enligatening the World." Today the ladies of America—we always find a woman whenever a noble task is to be accomplished present to the former ally of the United States a statue of him who was the highest personification of liberty, the immortal Washington. During the eight long years of sanguinary conflict, carried on at the cost of countless sacrifices, to assure our national independence, Washington was at once the sword and shield of the country and the disinterested champion of the sacred right of self-government. Throughout his entire career he was content to leave the efforts to man, the results to God. When he could not control, he endured. Slow in deliberation, firm in decision, clear in judgment and vigorous in action, never allowing himself to be unduly elated by victory or depressed by defeat, he could convince when others could not advise; he could lead where others could only follow.

"He emerged from the heroic struggle in which he had shown the prudence of a Fabius, the skill of a Hannibal, the courage of a Ney, crowned with the affection of his fellow countrymen and the admiration of the entire world. From the bitter seeds of war he reaped a harvest of enduring peace. He did his duty and trusted to history for his need of praise. History has not failed to render to him the tribute of its homage. The founder of the American republic was always the faithful friend of France. His heart was deeply touched by the sympathy she evinced for the colonies which had arisen against an unendurable oppression, and his sense of gratitude to the generous nation which came to their aid at the most critical moment of the struggle for existence was never weakened. His body lies upon the banks of the Potomac; it is fitting that his statue should stand upon the banks of the Seine. This monument is an offering of peace and good will. It is to be inaugurated within the shadow of the three resplendent colors which are those of the national banners of the two great republics. These flags, which blend so harmnious upon this occasion, are the symbol of the traditional friendship by which the two countries are united. May they never fail to recall the early alliance cemented upon the field of battle by the blood shed in common for the same cause."

WILL SOON BEGIN BUSINESS

Filed Articles of Incorporation Today—New Fort Wayne Industry of Much Promise.

The Haberkorn-Haley Manufacturing company is the title of a new Fort Wayne institution that promises to be a notable addition to the manufacturing interests of the city, and articles of incorporation were filed this morning by Attorney Joseph K. Haley, the legal representative of the company.

Its capital stock is $50,000, divided into shares of $25 each, and the incorporators, who also constitute the board of directors for the first year, are Messrs. Theodore H. Haberkorn, Joseph A. Haley, George H. Loesch, W. D. Henderson, Ernest W. Cook and Fred D. Hoham. The purpose of the new company is the manufacture and sale of steam engines and mechanical appliances, and especially the manufacture and sale of the Haberkorn-Haley patent valve mechanism for steam engines.

The Sentinel has heretofore printed a description of this valve mechanism, which is so distinct from all other appliances for its purpose as to practically constitute an entirely new engine. It has been thoroughly tested and has been in successful operation for some time in this city. The mechanism is adaptible to stationary and locomotive engines, to automobiles, steam vessels and every other purpose where steam is used as a motive power. Stock in the new company is now on sale and the gentlemen interested in the new company expect to at once proceed with arrangements for establishing a factory in Fort Wayne. There is every indication that the invention will prove a winner, and the inventors, who are practical mechanics of the highest type, are confident they have founded a manufacturing institution that will prove an important industrial acquisition to the city. It is expected the manufacture of the valve mechanism will begin within the next ninety days and the company is now casting about for a location.

FATALITY ON MT. WASHINGTON

Faybans, N. H., July 3.—The first fatality on Mount Washington in ten years took place as the result of the frightful storm last Saturday, when W. B. Curtis, sixty-three years of age, and Oscar Ormsbee, about thirty years, of New York, and both expert athletes, lost their lives on the Crawfish Height. Their bodies were found today by the members of the Appalachian Mountain club, now at the summit for their annual field meeting. Curtis was formerly one of the best known athletes in America, acting as referee at nearly all inter-collegiate sports and amateur athletics for many years and was one of the founders of the New York Athletic club. He was an expert mountain climber. Ormsbee, a member of the Crescent Athletic association, of Brooklyn, was an expert athlete.

LADIES WERE INJURED.

Kendallville Sun: "While returning home from a trip north last evening, Mr. and Mrs. Will Fisher, of this city, and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Trier, of Fort Wayne, met with an accident which might have proved very serious. While descending a hill near the Waterhouse place the tongue of their surrey fell to the ground, allowing the conveyance to run against the horses, which caused them to jump and kick, which soon demoralized the buggy. The ladies were compelled to jump from the conveyance and in doing so were badly injured. The injuries received by Mrs. Fisher have kept her bedfast today. The gentlemen escaped with a few slight bruises."

Without any elaborate preliminary arrangements Fort Wayne yesterday afternoon quietly and unostentatiously dropped back into second place. This was done with the connivance of the Old Soldiers, assisted materially by a number of errors by Fort Wayne which appear on the official score and several which do not appear there. All in all there were thirty-six innings played, in which each of the clubs played nine and the mild-mannered gentleman who modestly introduces himself as "Professor Johnston" played the other eighteen. Mr. Johnston was a very busy man yesterday afternoon. He commenced business by roasting the grand stand, and then paid particular attention to the reporters' box. Between times he [illegible] and blundered around the field doing some of the strangest things in the way of decisions that can be imagined. He had the playing rules pulled on him several times but that cut no ice with him. The clauses of the rules were printed only for those umpires who know little about the game, while he knew it all. He was allowed to proceed inasmuch as he was doing the best he could, one team getting as much the worst of it as the other and the crowd [illegible] tacitly excused his ignorance and smiled at his antics and running off at the mouth. But "He'll never come back."

The other feature of the game was the pitching of Robbins, a local amateur, pitcher for the Shamrocks. He pitched nine innings and allowed ten hits. If he had had support when it was needed the score would have looked different. Some people are uncharitable enough to say that they believe Robbins was deliberately thrown down by the local team, but the Sentinel does not believe that.

Neither side scored until the fourth inning, when the Soldiers scored [illegible] by Kr[illegible], [illegible] by [illegible]. In the sixth [illegible] and a single [illegible] another run. The [illegible] went down in the seventh when one hit and errors by Babb, Brashear and Miller let in three runs. In the ninth two more were added to the column. For Fort Wayne it was a [illegible] until the eighth when Captain Miller scored on errors by Wheeler and Gochnauer and a passed ball. In the ninth there were [illegible] more ex[illegible]. THE SHAMROCKS.

A large crowd should turn out to see Fort Wayne's fast semi-professionals at League park tomorrow afternoon. The Shamrocks have been going up against the best independent professional teams in this section of the country and have made a great record. The team has won nine out of fourteen games played. Among the teams defeated by the Shamrocks are: Richmond, Rochester (with Ream in the box), Indianapolis Reserves, Marion, Glasscock's Fort Wayne team, Concordia college (two games.) The Shamrocks' opponents tomorrow will be the crack Muncie team. The Shamrocks had good offers from Battle Creek, Mich.; Plymouth, Auburn and other places for tomorrow, but at the request of many friends they will play here. The Shamrocks will play in Richmond July 8, in Chicago July 15 and in Marion July 22. At tomorrow's game ladies will be admitted free to the game and the grand stand will be free.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, July 3.—The wheat market during the forenoon was firm and active. Liverpool was unexpectedly strong in the face of the 3¾c decline here yesterday, showing only a fractional loss. The Russian crop, it was reported in a cable message from Odessa, would be under the average. The northwest had more rain last night, but traders were disinclined to pay much attention to crop conditions, the shipping demand being considered the real key to the present wheat situation. August wheat opened 1c to 1⅜c over yesterday at 78¾c to 79¼c. Under profit-taking through commission houses August, having touched 79⅝c, following the opening, declined to 78¾c. At this concession there was good support and a recovery to 79¼c followed. Local receipts were 148 cars, 7 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 96 cars, against 198 last week.

Northwest messages to the effect that the recent rains had done no good to the spring wheat was a help to the market later and August was bid up to 80¼@80¾c. On profit-taking a reaction to 79⅛@79¼c followed, but the close was firm, August 1⅛c over yesterday at 79⅜@79½c.

Corn, aside from the strength derived from wheat, had some backbone of its own and enjoyed an active trade during the first half of the session. Liverpool was strong and higher, there was unfavorably hot weather in Kansas and Nebraska and country acceptances were light. There was a good outside demand and the same sort of encouragement from local bulls. Receipts were 1,161 cars. August opened ⅜c to ⅝@¾c over yesterday at 42¼c to 42⅜@42⅞c and sold off with wheat to 42¼c, but recovered to 42⅝@42¾c.

The close was strong, August 1@1⅛c higher at 43⅛@43¼c.

Oats were helped by the strength of wheat and corn and renewed assurances that hay and oats in the northwest had failed to an extent sufficient to startle the most optimistic horse which ever ate the aforementioned fodder. August opened ⅛c to ¼c higher at 23c to 23⅛c, sold off to 22⅞c and then rallied to 23@23⅛c. Receipts were 163 cars.

Provisions were firm because hog receipts were under the estimate and the market at the yards 5c to 10c higher. The grain strength was also a help. September pork opened 20c over yesterday at $12.95 and sold to $13.00; September lard opened 10@15c higher at $6.95@7.00 and sold to $7.02½, and September ribs 10c up at $7.12½, advancing to $7.20.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—July, 78⅛c; Aug., 79⅜@79½c; Sept., 80⅛c.

Corn—July, 42¼c; Aug., 43⅛@43¼c; Sept., 43⅝@43¾c.

Oats—July, 23c; Aug., 23⅛c; Sept., 23¼c.

Pork—July, $12.70; Sept., $12.90.

Lard—July, $6.82½; Sept., $6.92½; Oct., $6.95; Nov., $6.95.

Ribs—July, $7.07½; Sept., $7.10; Oct., $7.07½.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.90; Cash S. W., $1.80; Sept., $1.42; Oct., $1.36@1.36½.

LOCAL LINES.

Frank Barnes, of Chicago, will spend the Fourth in the city, the guest of relatives.

A little son of Deputy Treasurer Schulte is quite ill from the effects of a fall sustained several days ago.

Mrs. Walter Dederick, of Logansport, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, of West DeWald street.

The executive board of the Reformed Orphan's home held a business session on Monday afternoon and made preliminary arrangements for the celebration of the anniversary of the home, which will take place on August 9th. The celebration this year will be held at the home and will be on a much larger scale than heretofore. Excursions will be run from New Bremen and New Knoxville, O. Rev. Dr. Bachmann, of New Knoxville, was present at the meeting but the secretary, B. E. Stern, was unable to be present, owing to illness in his family.

Reports from the bedside of Mrs. S. C. Moffat at Hope hospital this afternoon are of a more encouraging nature, and while Mrs. Moffat is still critically ill it is believed she is making satisfactory progress toward recovery. This intelligence will be deeply gratifying to the countless friends who have watched with tender solicitude her brave battle against conditions which seemed most depressing. Monday afternoon Mrs. Moffat submitted to a critical operation performed by Dr. W. H. Myers, Dr. M. F. Porter, Dr. L. P. Drayer and Dr. E. VonSweringen. She has rallied hopefully and seems to be slowly gaining strength.

Last evening the finance committee held a regular meeting and recommended the appropriation of $1,000 for the repairs of Ida and Shawnee avenues bridges. The damage to these bridges was occasioned by the recent heavy floods in the south part of the city. The board of works asked for $1,500, but the amount was reduced to $1,000. It develops that the Ida avenue bridge is entirely destroyed and that it will require a new structure, which can not be built for less than $700. The law is that all bridges costing over $500 must be built by the county commissioners; the commissioners building the bridges and the city keeping them in repair. That being the case the $1,000 appropriation is considered ampy sufficient.

ONLY MANSLAUGHTER.

Floyd Rambaugh, charged with complicity in the murder of a policeman at Hicksville, O., was today convicted of manslaughter. He is the third one to be convicted, his two companions receiving life sentences. This is the case in which Detective Streifling of this city, is interested and in which he has gained considerable enviable and also some unenviable notoriety.

ONLY A SMALL BLAZE.

At 2:30 this afternoon the fire department made a run to the corner of Lafayette and Madison streets, where a small shed in the rear of the Gable property was in flames. The fire was quickly extinguished with but a nominal loss. Boys playing with fire crackers are supposed to be responsible for the blaze.

CRUSHED BENEATH TIMBERS

SEVEN MEN INJURED AT A BARN-RAISING.

Grant Graham Sustained a Fracture of the Skull and May Not Survive Others Improving.

An accident in which seven men were injured, two of them seriously, occurred at the farm of John Smith just opposite the county asylum, in Wayne township late Monday afternoon. A large crowd of the neighbors of Mr. Smith had assembled to take part in a barn raising on his farm and as the big side frame was being raised into position one of the corner beams failed to settle into the mortice and the supports gave way. The frame, which was an unusually large one, crashed to the ground, striking and pinning to the earth Grant Graham and Louis Julliard, who were unable to get out of the way in time. The other five men were struck by the falling timbers, but were not caught under them as were Julliard and Graham. It was some time before the two injured men could be released from their perilous position and when taken out both were unconscious. Dr. Maurice Rosenthal was at once summoned from the city and after attending to the injured, ordered Julliard and Graham removed to the St. Joe hospital.

Grant Graham is the most seriously injured and it is feared that his injuries may prove fatal. A heavy beam struck him on the head cutting it badly and fracturing his skull. He has been unconscious since the accident and his life hangs in the balance.

Louis Julliard was pinioned by a heavy beam which lay across his chest. Two ribs on the left side and the left collar bone are broken, and there is a fracture of the jaw, on the left side.

The other injured men are: Joseph Raber, scalp wound and body bruised; Joseph Lichtenberger, two ribs broken; Christian Neireiter, three ribs broken; Jeremiah Mather, badly cut and bruised, and a man named Engle, slightly bruised.

LOCAL LINES.

Centlivre Park—Cheviron, Richards, Holland and White.

COURT NEWS.

In the superior court Dwight E. Plimpton has commenced suit against the Wabash Railroad company for $10,000 on contract. The suit is based upon grounds similar to a number of others which have recently been commenced against the company, all resulting from the great strike of '94. The complaint avers that the plaintiff was in the employ of the company as an engineer under a specific contract and that he never violated the terms of said contract and was never given a hearing on any charges of any sort which might have been preferred against him. Further he has been at all times ready to fill his part of said contract; that his wages under the contract averaged $125 per month, all of which money has been withheld from him since the 11th of July, 1894. For this and other reasons he claims damages in the sum of $10,000. L. M. Ninde & Sons are attorneys.

Frances M. Howe sues Charles Fiichter in the superior court on foreclosure. Demand $1,500.

Recorder Gillette filed his first report today. During the two weeks he has been in office his fees have amounted to $265.90, of which $130 was turned into the county treasury.

This was bill day in the commissioners' court.

Justice Tancey today moved his office from the Bank block to the Swinney block.

In Huser's court Charles Lindsey has filed an affidavit against Albert King for provoke and Albert King has filed a similar affidavit against William Henze. The affidavits were the outcome of a quarrel in a Columbia street saloon, where compliments of an uncertain nature were passed.

Justice France today appointed Herman Felts custodian of the property of Richard C. Ross, adjudged insane by a jury. This appointment will stand only until the return to the bench of Judge O'Rourke, who will make the final appointment.

Charles M. Zickgraf and Grace B. Wilhelm were today married by 'Squire France. When the judge kissed the bride the windows in the new court house rattled perceptibly.

ARE PROVING POPULAR.

The increased attendance at Masonic Temple Sunday evening is evidence that Rev. Allen's popular Sunday evening services at the opera house will be most kindly received. A thirty-minutes singing service preceded the discourse Sunday evening, and the features of the song service were a splendid solo by Miss Smith, of Hiram college, and a duet by Miss Smith and Mr. Harshman. "A Knight in Old Clothes" was the pastor's topic, and in his talk Rev. Allen dealt entirely with incidents in the life of Christ when He was on earth. The text was taken from Matthew 16:13-24, and the theme, purely figurative, was based upon the ancient belief that when God should send an emissary He would be attired in gorgeous garb as an emblem of his divine authority. Yet Peter's answer, "Thou art the Christ," showed that he recognized in the unassuming Savior a true "knight in old clothes." And through the searching criticism of centuries Christ stands the same today, brighter, more certain, more definite than ever before.

JUDGE ADAIR WILL PITCH.

Columbia City Post: "James M. Harrison and Jeremiah Hartsock will pitch nine games of horseshoe against Judge Adair and Joseph Clark on the Fourth of July. The losing team is to pay for a supper at the Clugston house for themselves, their opponents and the families of both."

NIPPED A SNEAK THIEF.

Late this afternoon Officer Pappert arrested a man who gave his name as Charles Harington and his residence as Terre Haute, at Minskey's junk shop, on East Columbia street. Harington had in his possession several hundred feet of inch rope which he had tried to dispose of at various places, as was afterwards learned. When arrested he said the rope belonged to him, but when pushed he said he found it in a vacant barn and did not know that it belonged to anybody. The rope is at the police station.

YOUNG AMERICA IS ALL READY

WILL CELEBRATE UNCLE SAM'S BIRTHDAY TOMORROW.

The Elder Generation, Too, Will Lend Some Assistance—Wide Choice of Events.

Young America in Fort Wayne will see that Uncle Sam's birthday is properly celebrated tomorrow, and a goodly proportion of the elder generation will join in the annual observance of the glorious Fourth. The small boy has been preparing for the event for several weeks. Tomorrow evening may find him bruised and burned, but he will be happy.

Though there has been no attempt at a concerted observance of the day in Fort Wayne, individual organizations have arranged programs that offer a wide range of choice in the matter of a celebration of the day. Only the assurance of good weather is yet needed to guarantee the complete success of the day. The weather man, with an incomprehensible disregard for his popularity, has marked up showers for northern Indiana tomorrow.

There will be the usual large number of picnics. A number of the Lutheran congregations will hold forth at Williams' grove, another event is at the Concordia college grounds, while still other similar gatherings are to be held in different parts of the city. At Centlivre park the Union and Liberty club has arranged a fine all-day program, and at League park in the afternoon the Shamrocks and Muncies will meet in an exhibition of the national game.

At the Driving park the Amateur Driving club will give a fine race program, and the card is a drawing one. Robison park, too, will doubtless draw many thousands of people. The program there includes theatrical performances at 10:30, 2:30 and 6:30 p. m.; wild west show at 2:15 and 4:15; band concert at 10 a. m., and fireworks at 8:30. The street railway company promises plenty of cars, both going and returning. All in all, there will be no lack of Fourth of July attractions in Fort Wayne tomorrow.

LOCAL LINES.

Miss Mada Hellman, of East Washington street, left today for Kansas City, where she will visit friends for three weeks.

Mrs. Mary Campion went to New York city today to make an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Salem Bashara, the Assyrian wholesale dealer in notions, is in Bremen, Ind., on a business trip.

The joint picnic to be given by the congregations of Zion's, Emmanuel's and Emmaus Lutheran churches at Williams' grove tomorrow promises to be a most enjoyable event. The picnic will last all day. Refreshments will be served and the City band will furnish the music.

A number of the families of members of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ will hold a picnic at the grove opposite the Driving park tomorrow afternoon. There will be games and refreshments will be served. Among the families who will participate in the picnic are those of Rev. E. W. Allen, D. N. Doyle, Dr. Calvin, George Savier, Edwin Rich, M. McGee and others.

The board of public works yesterday afternoon passed on some small improvements and changed the location of a number of street lights. On Thursday night bids will be received for paving East Main street, from Calhoun to Barr; Clinton, from Main to Berry. Webster, from DeWald street to Woodland avenue, and Third street, from Calhoun to St. Mary's avenue. Building permits were issued to Hugh G. Keegan, for a two story frame residence on parts of lots 1 and 2, Bond's sub-division, for $2,500, and to I. M. Rosenthal, for a two story frame house on lot 247, Hanna's addition, for $1,600.

SHOP AND RAIL.

REFUSE TO HANDLE CARS WITHOUT AUTOMATIC COUPLERS.

VERY FEW WITHOUT THEM

MANY EMPLOYES WILL SPEND FOURTH OUT OF CITY.

ALL SHOPS WILL BE CLOSED

GENERAL AND PERSONAL NEWS OF THE RAILWAYS.

Superintendent Blizard, of the Michigan division of the Big Four, at Wabash, yesterday sent out notices to agents and conductors instructing them to refuse a large number of line cars and cars of connecting roads which are not supplied with automatic couplers, as required by law. Some of the other railways connecting with the Big Four are putting the ban on the cars described in the circular and the Big Four cannot handle them. It is stated by the officials of the Big Four that of the 15,000 cars of all kinds owned by the company, all but twelve have the automatic coupler. Six months ago there were but 173 of the cars not so equipped and the company has been exerting itself to get these to its shop.

The officials of the railways running through Fort Wayne have received notice from the managers that cars not equipped with automatic couplers will not be accepted for movement except in homeward direction until August 1, and after that date no cars not so equipped will be accepted under any circumstances.

ELECTRIC WORKS BALL TEAM

The electric light base ball team has been organized for the season and are ready to meet any and all shop teams in the city. They claim the championship of the shop teams and are ready to make good their claim. The club desires to play a game with the Pennsylvania shop team and are ready to accept the challenge issued by the latter some time ago, the game to be played some Saturday afternoon. Address all challenges to Thomas Quinn, manager, or Nelson Bucher, care electric works.

C. Diller, F. S. Bentz, J. A. Nipper and W. Repine, of the Pittsburg planing mills, are sick and off duty.

M. C. Wright, Wabash machinist, will go to Paulding, Ohio, on his wheel to spend the Fourth with his brother.

Alonzo Swank, of the winding room at the electric works, is passing the cigars around to his fellow employes. It's a boy.

Stewart Rehrer, of the electric works, has returned from Chillicothe, Ohio, where he had been on business for the company.

Engine 773 has been turned out of the Wabash shops after undergoing repairs and will go into service on the eastern division.

The railroad department of the Y. M. C. A. will have charge of the services at the South Lafayette street school house on Sunday evening.

M. S. Willson, foreman in the electric works, has returned from Hamilton and Cincinnati, Ohio, where he had been doing some work for the company.

Conductor H. G. Quivey, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana road, spent Sunday in the city, the guest of his parents. He was accompanied by Robert Allen, of Richmond.

Charles Scott, machinist in the Wabash shops, will spend the Fourth at Wooster, Ohio, and Otto Morrell, who has charge of the tool room in the Wabash shops, will spend the day in Toledo.

Henry Seobold, D. W. Rhoades, Charles Lehr, E. F. Thompson, F. E. Moore, J. Stewart, T. H. Sinclair and W. H. Windsor, engineers on the Pennsylvania road, are taking short vacations.

The Fort Wayne Electric company today shipped a car load of dynamo machinery to the Eastern Ship Building company, New London, Conn., and a sixty-light arc dynamo to Havana, Cuba.

William Lankenau, of the Pennsylvania police service, has been transferred from Fort Wayne to Columbus, Ohio, on the Indianapolis division. F. M. Butcher, also of the police service, has been transferred from this city to Lima, Ohio.

Brakeman C. A. Blout, of the Nickel Plate, is off duty on account of illness, and W. C. Erickson is laying off on account of an inflamed eye, caused by getting a cinder in the member. Dr. Dinnen removed the cinder.

Switchman E. W. Lott and Brakemen S. F. Washburn and E. Obenchain have reported for duty.

James E. Ford, molder at the Bass works, left for Indianapolis today to visit his parents, who are now residents of that city.

Brakemen Fissel and P. W. Callen and Conductors F. W. Burkett and H. P. Compton, of the Pennsylvania, are taking a lay off.

R. Hardendorf, blacksmith in the Pittsburg shops, and his family, will spend the Fourth at Rome City, visiting Mr. Hardendorf's parents.

W. R. Gebhrding, of the downtown freight offices of the Pennsylvania company, is filling the vacancy caused by the illness of W. H. Walker.

Pittsburg Roundhouse Callers Bates and Kahoe have resigned and L. W. Kelty, formerly east yard caller, has accepted a similar position in the round house.

J. Eusch, H. T. Bolard, J. A. Nipper, J. O. Langston, Peter Junk and J. Junk, of the Pittsburg planing mills, are off duty today, the Messrs. Junk laying off to attend the funeral of a relative.

Conductors F. J. Martin, A. J. Compton and J. P. Gray, of the Pennsylvania, have reported for duty. Brakemen A. C. Wood and C. H. Holopeter have also returned to work after taking vacations.

L. S. Kinnaird, who was recently appointed assistant master mechanic of the Pennsylvania railway shops at Allegheny, is in the city and will make arrangements to remove his family to Allegheny.

Superintendent E. A. Gould, of the Wabash, is lying dangerously ill at his home in Peru. One day last week a special train took several expert physicians from Chicago to Peru to consult over the sick man.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Wegerman—a girl. Mr. Wegerman is a painter employed in the Bass machine shop, and when he went home to supper last evening he found the newcomer awaiting his arrival.

H. L. Ely, night yardmaster, of the east yards of the Pennsylvania company, has taken a leave of absence, which he is spending at Rome City. J. P. Gray is acting night yardmaster during the absence of Mr. Ely.

S. B. Dola, general master mechanic of the Wiggins Ferry company, of St. Louis, Mo., is in the city on his way home from the convention of the American Master Mechanics' association, at Saratoga, N. Y. He is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. T. Callahan.

In order to accommodate the Fourth of July visitors to Rome City the Grand Rapids and Indiana road will run a special train from that summer resort to Fort Wayne tomorrow night, leaving Rome City at 11 o'clock. This will be a great convenience for people who desire to spend the evening there.

Supt. A. M. Schoyer, of the eastern division of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road, and party, traveling in private car No. 502, arrived in the city last evening on Pennsylvania train No. 9, and left over the Grand Rapids and Indiana on train No. 3 for Bay View, a summer resort in Michigan.

SCHOONER WAS LOST.

Belleville, Ont., July 3.—The schooner Annie Minnes arrived in port last night and her crew confirms the loss of the schooner Picton off Charlotte. The captain says he was within two miles of the Picton when she foundered, but was unable to render any assistance. The Picton was owned by Captain Sidley, of this city, who sailed her. With him perished his son, Sylvester, and the following crew, all of Belleville: Frank Smith, Walter Penn, William Elgin and Bernard Myers.

CONSPIRATORS SENTENCED.

New York, July 3.—Justice Fursman, in the criminal term of the supreme court this morning, sentenced Alfred R. Gosling, Florence J. Packer and Charles T. Davis, who were found guilty yesterday of conspiracy to depress the price of Brooklyn Rapid Transit stock. Goslin was sentenced to six months in jail and to pay a fine of $500. Packer and Davis to three months each and to pay a fine of $250 each.

NEWS FROM GOLD BEACH.

THE LUTHERAN DEACONESSES.

The Lutherans of this city will be glad for the opportunity of seeing representatives of the Blessed Lutheran deaconess work. In the little garden house parsonage, with one room ten feet square and an attic over it, which still stands in the garden at Kaiserswerth, Germany, in 1836, the Lutheran pastor, the late Fliedner, founded the institution of Protestant Deaconess. This institution has [illegible] and has a strong foothold in this country, there being at least seven Mother Houses in the United States. The head [illegible] of the mother house at Baltimore, the [illegible] will be in the city over Thursday night and will talk [illegible] work at Christ's Lutheran church that evening, at S[illegible] Luke. All are most cordially invited.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THE WEATHER.

Chicago, July 3.—Forecast for Indiana—Fair except showers and thunderstorms in north portion tonight and Wednesday; continued warm; southwest winds.

LOCAL LINES.

Judge Chapin was at Kendallville Monday on legal business.

George Cummerow is at home from a visit of several weeks at Chicago.

The Misses May and Marguerite Muller have returned from a visit at Leo.

Mrs. John Deagan and children are at Chicago, the guests of Mrs. Joseph Harber.

Mrs. Frank Lachler is entertaining her sister, Miss Minnie Hunter, of Owensburg, Ky.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. P. McGaw will spend the holidays at Rome City, the guests of friends.

Eugene Zur Muhlen left today for Lafayette, where he will spend the Fourth with friends.

Mrs. A. A. Serva left for Canton, Ohio, today to make an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Mrs. William Maxwell is quite ill from inflammatory rheumatism at her her home, on Buchanan street.

Charles E. Betts, of Sidney, Ohio, is in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Bourie, of Edgewater avenue.

Harry Culbertson, of Indianapolis, has been visiting in the city, the guest of his brother, F. V. Culbertson.

The Misses Wagner, of Sidney, Ohio, were the guest of honor at a card party given last evening by Mrs. A. W. Golden.

Mr. and Mrs. David Valentine and children, of East Wayne street, have returned from a visit of several weeks with relatives in Michigan.

Mrs. Walter Buchanan, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Grey, for several days, has returned to her home at Savannah, Ohio.

Mrs. F. M. Reaser and daughter, Muriel, left last evening for Kansas City, where they will visit Mrs. Reaser's son and other relatives.

G. W. Schack, Ernest Neimeyer and H. F. Franke have been elected by the Walther League of St. Paul's church as delegates to the national convention at Cleveland.

The ladies' society of Westminster church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Tennant, 165 Washington boulevard. The ladies will please bring their thimbles.

Messrs. Sam, Pete & Max have concluded negotiations by which they turn over their lease for the building, No. 58 Calhoun street, to Messrs. Wolff Bros., of Racine, Wis. The contract also calls for the transfer of the fixtures and all the merchandise remaining unsold on Aug. 6th—the latter at an enormous sacrifice. The Messrs. Wolff are clothing men of much experience and are backed by abundant capital. It is their intention to restock the old store with merchandise of the same high character for which it has always been noted.

Manager Friedlich promises to continue the closing-out sale for the intervening five weeks in a manner decidedly interesting for people who like to buy good clothing at less than value. He knows now just what each garment will bring in cash Aug. 6th, and proposes to give the old customers of the Sam, Pete & Max store the benefit of the sacrifice made to Wolff Bros. to close out the business. The entire stock has been marked to correspond with present conditions and every customer who goes in the store with a dollar, between now and Aug. 6th, will find that dollar worth as much as any one that Wolff Bros. bring down from Wisconsin.

It's an unusual opportunity for men of modest means. Several thousand dollars' worth of stylish clothing still remains, and you may buy what you need now at about what the cloth is worth in case lots at the mills.
